3.2 BEER APPROVED IN HOUSE BY VOTE OF 230 TO 165; SENATORS MOVE FOR EARLY ACTION ON MEASURE

'RULED ON MERITS,' STATES GOVERNOR; EX-CONVICT JOYFUL

N. J. Executive Hands Down Decision After Hearing Long Recital of Alleged Brutality Practiced on Chaingangs.

SPECTATORS RUSH TO SIDE OF BURNS

Fugitive, Congratulated, Kisses Hands of Moore During Wild Demonstration After Hearing.

By FRANCIS A. JAMIESON.
TRENTON, N. J., Dec. 21.—(AP)—Governor A. Harry Moore flatly refused tonight to send Robert Elliott Burns back to a Georgia chain gang from which he twice escaped.

After listening to tales of alleged brutalities in chain gangs, of the use of "sweat boxes" and "stocks" in Georgia prison camps, Governor Moore announced he decided the case "upon its merits."

The United States constitution leaves the governor no apparent discretion in extradition proceedings, he said, but the United States and New Jersey supreme courts have ruled he may decide upon merits.

Burns, a short, nervous person, was pushed and pulled by spectators who rushed from the assembly chamber galleries to shake his hand. His mother rushed across the chamber and could not reach her son. His brother, the Rev. Vincent J. Burns, threw his arms about the former fugitive in elation.

The ex-convict, who had listened intently to debate by his eminent attorney to counsel, supplied by the American Civil Liberties Union, and the representatives of Georgia, was taken to a rear room. There he met his mother. Tears in her eyes, she kissed him.

Kisses Governor's Hands.

Anxious to thank Governor Moore, who made his freedom possible, Burns was taken to the executive offices. He kissed the governor's hands as he expressed his gratitude. He was obviously surprised by the governor's reaction.

"Burns," said Governor Moore, "you can stay in New Jersey as long as you lead a honest life and remain a good citizen. But never mind the publicity stuff. It is now up to you whether you go back."

Burns, accused by John I. Kelley, Georgia assistant attorney general, with misrepresenting the treatment he received in the southern prison camps, was taken back to the Newark jail, where he will be formally released.

Whether Burns can be sent back to the Georgia chain gang by Governor Moore's successor was apparently debatable. It was the opinion of legal experts a new governor would hesitate to overrule his predecessor. But there seemed to be no doubt that the governor's office could not be

COTTON AID SEEN IN RELIEF PLANS

House Uncertain on Form of Measure To Be Recommended by Committee

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Exactly what form of farm relief will be recommended to the house by its agriculture committee was still at the discussion stage today, with committee sentiment apparently leaning toward a strictly emergency bill limited to wheat and cotton.

No action was taken, but the talk which went around the table behind closed doors led some members to predict after the hour and a half session that any legislation reported would be for one year's—or at the most two years'—duration.

It was further forecast by some that tobacco and hogs, included in the bill sponsored by farm organization leaders, would be left out, but nothing definite has yet been done in this direction.

May Split Party Lines.

Chairman Jones desires to conclude preparation of a bill as soon as possible. With beer legislation out of the way, farm relief and the supply bill, the list of measures in the short session program.

Republican members on the agriculture committee have not taken any organized position on the bill and any committee votes are likely to split party lines.

Packers have said a processing tax would have to come out of the hog producer. But others argue that the tax, especially on wheat and cotton, would be very small on the finished product. Among them is Representative Summers, democrat, Texas, who last session organized an unofficial "forum" for discussing the farm problem.

"Appeal to Common Sense."

Summers professes to prefer the export debenture plan, but when asked "how you can get urban votes for the export scheme that increases the price of wheat 50 cents a bushel and doubles the price of cotton," replied:

"As a city man myself, I say you can do it by appealing to their common sense."

U. S.-Ga. Bicentennial Commission Is Sought

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Establishment of a United States-Georgia bicentennial commission for the purpose of having the federal government participate in the observance next year of the two hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Georgia colony was asked in a joint resolution laid before the house and senate today by Senator Walter F. George and Representative Homer C. Parker, of Georgia.

The proposed commission would be composed of 21 members, nine to be appointed by the president and six by the house. An initial appropriation of $2,000 was sought to cover expenses of the commission, but later on it is contemplated that efforts will be made to have this sum increased to $250,000.

One Brother of Florida's Governor Is Accidentally Killed by Another

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Dec. 21.—(AP)—Governor Doyle E. Carlton was advised late today that his brother, Carl, of Wauchula, was killed accidentally by another brother, Alton, while they were deer hunting today in the Everglades.

The message to the governor said Carl was struck full in the face by a charge of shot Alton had fired at a deer. The charge ricocheted after striking a tree.

RAIL, LABOR HEADS REACH AGREEMENT TO EXTEND SLASH

Nine-Day Impasse Broken as Leaders Harmonize Differences Over Basic Wage Scale.

By J. LATHROP MACK.

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—(Thursday) (AP)—With the last union representative reporting approval early today, the wage parity between railway labor and managers reached agreement with a compromise to extend for nine months the 10 per cent deduction of the basic wage scale.

Shortly after midnight the Brotherhood of Firemen and Trainmen, met to approve the compromise, agreed to the proposal. Signing of the new agreement was expected before the session adjourned, thereby terminating nine days' negotiations.

The new agreement replaces one signed last winter providing for a deduction of 10 per cent from the basic wage. It contains a clause permitting either side to appeal for a revision of the basic wage on or after June 15. The new agreement will be effective February 1, the day after last winter's agreement terminates.

A few hours earlier the parity had appeared headed toward a stalemate, a thing which the union men would not greatly regret in as much as it would mean an automatic end of a 10 per cent "reduction" and a return to their old wage scale.

The principal point of difference at the parity has been over continuance of the one-year reduction agreed upon last February 1. Managers have contended the agreement must be extended for six months. The unions, fearing that when this new agreement expires even greater wage reductions may be asked, held out at first for a year's extension.

It was announced last night that the operators had withdrawn their proposal of a six-month extension, claiming that union objections made it impossible to agree on such a settlement.

The meeting today was made up of the nine rail leaders on one side and 22 union representatives on the other. Of the 22 union men, 21 represented various railroad unions and the other was a representative of the American Federation of Labor.

A. F. Whitney was the spokesman for the union committee.

N. Carolina Moves To Imprison Leas

RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 21.—(AP)—The Raleigh machinery whereby the state of North Carolina hopes to ultimately exact the penalties imposed on Luke Lea, Tennessee publisher, and his son, Luke Lea Jr., for their conviction in a bank fraud case was thrown into gear today.

Formal notification that the United States supreme court had declined to intervene in the case arrived here from Washington, leaving only a possible fight against extradition to this state as the Leas' lone hope of avoiding execution of their sentences.

The state supreme court forwarded the papers in the case to the Buncombe county superior court in Asheville, where the Leas were convicted in connection with the failure of the Central Bank & Trust Company, a $17,000,000 institution.

Fire in Notion Store Imperils Yule Crowd

PEORIA, Ill., Dec. 21.—(AP)—Fire fed by flammable tissue paper holiday decorations raged through a downtown 10-cent store tonight, routing several hundred adults and children engaged in Christmas shopping. The building was destroyed, but firemen said they believed no lives were lost.

Several persons were injured slightly in jumping into life nets and a few suffered minor burns as they rushed to safety as the flames swept swiftly through the establishment after an electric light bulb had exploded.

Augusta Dentist Shot Dead In Attempt at Burglary

Dr. M. G. Vaughan, in Dying Statement, Said He Was Seeking Christmas Gift for Daughter, Marshal Declares.

GRAYMONT, Ga., Dec. 21.—(AP)—Dr. M. G. Vaughan, 57-year-old Augusta dentist, was shot to death here Tuesday by Marshal R. S. Adams who said he admitted he turned burglar to get something for a daughter who was coming home for Christmas.

Adams said the dentist told him three companions, who escaped as the marshal fired on them, proposed the plan to rob Watson Brothers' store and he agreed because he was badly in need of money. He said he first met the other three men Tuesday night.

Augusta Dentist Shot Dead In Attempt at Burglary

Dr. M. G. Vaughan, in Dying Statement, Said He Was Seeking Christmas Gift for Daughter, Marshal Declares.

GRAYMONT, Ga., Dec. 21.—(AP)—Dr. M. G. Vaughan, 57-year-old Augusta dentist, was shot to death here Tuesday by Marshal R. S. Adams who said he admitted he turned burglar to get something for a daughter who was coming home for Christmas.

Adams said the dentist told him three companions, who escaped as the marshal fired on them, proposed the plan to rob Watson Brothers' store and he agreed because he was badly in need of money. He said he first met the other three men Tuesday night.

The officer said his suspicions were aroused by the four men last night and he kept watch on them. About 2 a. m. he said, he watched from behind a tree as they tried to open the door of the store. He said he fired one of the men tried to break the door. He continued to shoot as Vaughan and the others fled.

Adams hurried to a hospital in Swainsboro with the wounded man but he died there.

Vaughan was a graduate of an Atlanta dental school. He had practiced in Augusta for 25 years.

The daughter coming home for Christmas was Mrs. H. A. Heard, of 396 Clifford avenue, Atlanta.

"I don't believe it," another daughter, Virginia, 18, said over and over when she was informed of the reported circumstances of her father's death.

Three men were lodged in the Richmond county jail tonight in connection with the investigation of the attempted burglary.

The men gave their names as Joe Virelli, Carl Frederick and Robert Gilmore, all of Augusta.

DR. VAUGHAN PRACTICED IN AUGUSTA 12 YEARS

AUGUSTA, Ga., Dec. 21.—(AP)—Dr. M. G. Vaughan, who was shot and killed in Graymont while he and two other men allegedly were attempting to rob a store, had been a dentist here for the past 12 years. He was born in Jackson, S. C.

Surviving are five daughters, Mrs. Harold Heard, Atlanta; Mrs. George Singleton, Dallas, Texas; Mrs. Paul Crowder, Dallas, Texas; Miss Virginia Vaughan, Augusta; Miss Vivian Vaughan, Augusta; one son, M. G. Vaughan, Columbia, S. C., and two brothers and three sisters.

ROBINSON SCORES CHARGE OF 'DOLE'

Economy Leader's Attack on Disability Funds of Veterans Draws Fire.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(AP)—The word "dole," applied by William Marshall Bullitt to federal disability allowances to veterans for troubles not traceable to service duty today set off a wordy encounter before the joint congressional committee on veterans' legislation.

Senator Robinson, republican, Indiana, who has repeatedly announced opposition to reducing the yearly billion-dollar veterans' relief bill, heatedly took exception to this remark by Bullitt, who appeared for the National Economy League.

Explaining the league's recommendations for reductions aggregating $104,000,000 was in the disability allowances, which he described as "nothing but a dole . . . a pure dole given to the veterans as a reward."

Leaving halfway across the committee, Robinson interrupted and retorted:

"These allowances are not based on charity. I think that is a perfectly proper statement. You do not have any such idea in 1917, did you?"

Bullitt replied there could be a difference of opinion. He said the league felt the allowance "might be fairly eliminated," estimated $60,000,000 would draw such payments by the end of the year, and that this total would increase as the veterans grew older.

When Robinson insisted on ascer-

Fund for Ten Opportunities In Hailing Distance of Goal

By ROY ROBERT.

Within hailing distance of the goal, but not over, Ten Opportunities fund gained momentum Wednesday with subscriptions of $703, which brought the total to $3,108 since the fund opened.

Cognizant of the need of desperately destitute families, employees and officials of the Citizens and Southern National bank of Atlanta joined together in contributing $290 to the fund.

Exactly a score of persons and groups contributed, and in nearly every case enclosed with checks or cash a note of sympathy for the city's 10 neediest families.

For the second year the James L. Key Bible class subscribed to care for a family when Ben L. Brooks, president, "adopted" Opportunity No. 9, subscribing $25 a month, or $300 for the year.

Among the larger cash contributors was Mrs. F. M. Robinson, who gave $50 for Opportunity No. 10, but stipulated that in case that family had been cared for it be placed in the general fund.

Despite the generous response with cash donations, still there are four other families of the 10 neediest which face a year of destitution.

There is Opportunity No. 3, a widow mother and four children in destitution and, because of broken health, in urgent need of assistance through next year. Twenty-six dollars a month or $312 for the year will see them through.

There also is Opportunity Family No. 8, a frail mother and five children—some a new baby—who must have substantial food and warm quarters and clothing to survive. Only $40 a month to buy milk and good food, pay rent and buy fuel, or $480 for the year, will keep this family alive.

Opportunity No. 8 still waits for

MURPHY VETUES COUNCIL CONTROL OF CITY'S AFFAIRS

Action of Acting Mayor Brings Bitter Attack From Co-Author White. Reintroduction Planned.

Acting Mayor J. Charlie Murphy Wednesday vetoed a council resolution empowering city council to run affairs of the city government without charter restrictions heretofore imposed, and drew a caustic attack from Councilman John A. White, of the fourth ward, co-author of the measure with Councilman Joseph E. Berman.

At the same time Murphy approved a proposed constitutional amendment, of which he was the author, which would empower the city to make loans in any one year and pledge uncollected taxes, and bills receivable in the following year. Under present conditions the city must repay all loans in the year in which they are made.

Assailing Murphy as being "ready to capitalize his political aspirations at the price of efficiency, economy and suffering taxpayers," White said the veto was "equivalent to his (Murphy's) announcement for mayor."

Murphy objected to the alleged "unlimited" power which the resolution would confer on council to fix salaries of all employees and the terms of office, to elect department heads and to consolidate and abolish departments in the interest of efficiency and economy.

White's Statement.

Text of White's statement regarding the veto follows:

"Albertain Murphy's attitude in this matter has certainly surprised me, as I numbered him among the members of general council who were ready and willing, if necessary, to sacrifice his political and personal aspirations to save the city from economic disaster. His action, however, has fully demonstrated that he is ready to capitalize his political aspirations at the price of efficiency, economy, business-like methods and suffering taxpayers, and is nothing more than a politician seeking to follow his recommendations. That is, he reserved full liberty of action.

The telegram from Albany was described as a "dole" by the citizens know that the city has got to be reorganized and drastic methods taken in order to place it on a sound financial and business basis and to live within the ability of the taxpayers to pay the bills, restore its buying power, to place it where the city will be good, and if there is any member of the city council or official or employee who is not in accord with such action their resignations should come forth. Taxpayers should demand them.

"I am ready and willing to meet with citizens, officials and employees of the city and to discuss with them the city's problems. I am ready and willing to meet with citizens, officials and employees of the city and to discuss with them the city's problems. I am ready and willing to meet with citizens, officials and employees of the city and to discuss with them the city's problems."

Roosevelt Paroles Georgian in Sing Sing

GREENVILLE, Ga., Dec. 21.—Judge H. H. Revell announced here today that Hewlette Rainwater, today Athens man convicted in New York last year of attempted holdup and sentenced to from 6-12 to 11 years in Sing Sing, would be released on parole next Friday.

Received a wire to this effect from Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Young Rainwater, son of Mayor E. H. Rainwater, of Bowlin, Ga., and formerly a soda clerk in an Athens drug store, went to New York early in the spring of 1931, leaving his 19-year-old bride, Mrs. Grace Rainwater, in Athens. On March 21 he attempted to hold up a New York candy store but, when the manager told him to drop his gun, he did so and was arrested. The youth's actions puzzled friends and acquaintances here, who pointed out that he had gone to New York with only $15 and with no apparent reason. He was in an automobile accident some months before.

Judge Revell represented young Rainwater at his trial in New York.

TALMADGE TO PICK LINDER, MRS. DREW

Two Slated for Secretarial Posts; Mangham for Purchasing Agent.

Tom Linder, of Hazelhurst, and Mrs. Eva Drew, of McRae, will be secretaries to Governor-elect Eugene Talmadge after he assumes office on January 10, it was learned definitely Wednesday. Linder will be the executive secretary, succeeding I. K. Hay, and Mrs. Drew will be the private secretary, succeeding Leeman Anderson.

Though no formal announcement has been made by the governor-elect, the Constitution established definitely that these two have been selected. Mr. Linder has been Mr. Talmadge's assistant in the department of agriculture and Mrs. Drew has been Mr. Talmadge's secretary for the last several years.

Rumors about the capital Wednesday also linked the name of J. J. Mangham, of Bremen, with the post of state purchasing agent, but it is believed that this appointment has not yet been definitely determined on.

It also was learned that Mr. Talmadge will have Mrs. Hattie Jackson, of Forsyth, a daughter of the late Judge O. H. P. Bloodworth, as assistant to Mrs. Drew, and his personal secretary, while Miss Elaine Ray will be in the executive secretary's office as assistant to Mr. Linder.

Though Governor-elect Talmadge would make no announcement regarding his staff of office assistants he did vehemently deny a rumor that Mr. Linder would receive a larger salary than the $300 monthly now paid to Mr. Hay.

"I am not ready to announce these or any other appointments," the governor-elect said, "but I will say that no one will get a larger salary for a job than the job is now paying. There will be no salary raises for anyone. I want the people to understand that."

GEORGIANS SPLIT IN BEER BILL VOTE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Seven members of the Georgia delegation, Representatives Ramspeck, of Decatur; Tarver, of Dalton; Castellow, of Cuthbert; Cox, of Camilla; Wood, of Canton; Langford, of Douglas; and Wright, of Newnan, voted against beer. Parker, of Statesboro; Vinson, of Milledgeville, voted for it; and Larsen, of Dublin; Brand, of Athens, and Mobley, of Forsyth, did not vote, but Mobley was paired against the bill with Crump, of Tennessee, for it was not announced how Brand or Larsen would have voted if they had been present.

No member of the delegation spoke for or against the bill on the house floor.

Representatives Ramspeck, Castellow, Cox and Wood voted for the Garner repeal resolution, and Langford, Larsen, Mobley, Parker, Tarver and Wright, voted against it, while Brand did not vote, due to illness.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Trampling down all dry opposition, house votes jammed the democratic 3.2 per cent beer bill through unchanged today and laid it on the doorstep of the senate where early action is promised.

The big vote, 230 to 165, approving the measure, was the first successful vote by wet in either branch of congress to modify the Volstead act since it became law 12 years ago. Shouts and applause greeted Speaker Clegg's announcement of the bill's passage.

RACIAL CONFLICT LAID TO 'ALIEN INFLUENCE'

Southern Negro Being 'Used'
by Radical Element, Charge.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 21.—(AP)—Certain sinister alien influences are seeking to sow discord between whites and negroes in Alabama, said a report of a subcommittee on race relations released by James D. Burton, secretary of the Alabama commission on interracial relations.

The committee of the state interracial commission desires to put the people of Alabama on guard against certain sinister alien influences which at this time are seeking deliberately to sow discord between white and black.

"That such a condition exists is amply supported by testimony and documentary evidence beyond dispute. Subversive literature and personal solicitations are now, and for some time have been, in wide but secret use, while inflammatory propaganda has been broadcast through the press. Behind this malevolent activity there is able leadership, tireless energy, worldwide organization and apparently unlimited money."

"These apostles of revolution pretend friendship for the negro, but in our judgment, are using him merely as a means to their own destructive ends. Communism, it appears, in its hope of world revolution, has chosen the southern negro as the American group most likely to respond to their revolutionary appeal."

SEVEN NEGROES HELD IN ALABAMA OUTBREAK

DADEVILLE, Ala., Dec. 21.—(AP)—Seven negroes charged with assault with intent to murder four deputy sheriffs, were held in jail here tonight, as authorities sought to bring to a central location all suspects held in connection with the outbreak near Reelton Monday, in which one negro was killed and several wounded.

At least one other negro, Ned Cobb, was held in jail here and several still were at "bushes," with officers estimating that all told 12 were under arrest. No formal charge had been made against Cobb.

CARNEGIE LIBRARY 'FINELESS' PERIOD TO END SATURDAY

Only three days remain in which members in more or less standing with the Carnegie library may pay their fines, return books they kept overtime, and become reinstated as patrons without charge. The "fineless" period will end next Saturday, Miss Jessie Hopkins, the librarian, said Wednesday.

"And will never return," she added, "not in our lifetime at least."

Some members, she said, either through shame or financial disability, had been denied the use of the library for years through failure to return books kept beyond the time limit and to pay their fines. Under the rules, no past-due book may be returned until the penalty is paid.

"There were 1,594 of these members," Miss Hopkins added, "and they seemed glad to be able to resume their relations with the library. The return of old books, one of the main incentives of 'fineless days,' has been disappointing. So far, only 444 have been restored. I hope this number will be increased by Saturday night."

One of the returned books, "The Depot Master," by Joseph C. Lincoln, had been kept out for 11 years. "The Country Beyond," by Oliver Curwood, stayed away for 10 years. Other volumes brought back included "The Crowded Years," by W. G. McAdoo; "The Tragic Era," by Claude Rowers; "The Story of France," by Thomas E. Watson; "The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire," by Gibbons; and "The City Manager," by Richter.

NEW SCHOOL CODE URGED BY DUGGAN IN FINAL REPORT

Complete revision of the state school code, the passage of uniform free text-book laws, and the elimination of summer training schools for teachers are urged in the annual report of Dr. M. L. Duggan, retiring state superintendent of schools, made public Wednesday.

The report is the last to be made by Dr. Duggan. He goes out of office next month, having been defeated by M. D. Collins, of Fairburn, in the state primary last September.

The superintendent said that under the present system it is impossible to administer to the best advantage of the state's children and praised the appointment of the new school code commission which is to report to the legislature at its forthcoming session.

The superintendent said that the summer training schools have cost the state about $200,000 annually and have served a good purpose, but he recommended their elimination because he believes there now is a surplus of good teachers and the training of more would be useless.

The superintendent pointed out that the only unit to obtain a degree of education is to adopt free uniform text-books, adding that he believed it an extravagance to pay teachers to look after schools in which children were not all equipped with uniform free text-books.

CHARLIE C. HOLT, 55, TO BE BURIED TODAY

Funeral services for Charlie C. Holt, 55, of 572 Luckie street, N. W., retired foreman of the city waterworks and Spanish-American War veteran, will be held at the chapel of Brandon Bond-Comden at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Interment will be in Crest Lawn cemetery.

Mr. Holt was stricken suddenly last Saturday morning and died that afternoon. He had many friends on the police force and an honorary escort composed of motorcycle and radio car patrolmen will take part in the services today. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mattie Holt; three sons, William Holt, Atlanta; Charles and Albert Holt, New York; three daughters, Mrs. W. M. Lemler, Mrs. Agnes Mitchell, both of Atlanta, and Mrs. T. R. Hurler, of Dallas, Texas, and 11 grandchildren.

5 MONTHS MADE UP BY FULTON COURTS

The Fulton civil calendar, which was 17 months behind at the beginning of the November-December term of superior court, has made up five months of this time, it was learned Wednesday when the courts suspended all operations until January 3.

Last Friday all criminal courts and civil jury business were suspended until the January term and all five judges went on motions. Through the use of a visiting judge on criminal business, thus allowing three judges to hear civil business, and the fact that the civil courts ran all afternoon each day during the term, the five months of the last time were made up.

Boot Shop Has Yule Display

The window above shows what experienced decorators can do with a display of holiday footwear. Messrs. Peacock, Price and Kessler, window men of the Chandler Boot Shop, 172 Peachtree, under the general supervision of C. E. Hadaway, manager, produced this effect with shoes, hosiery, house shoes and mules. "We feel that this is one of the most gorgeous window displays in the uptown shopping district," Mr. Hadaway said. He added that his decorators and his sales force would cooperate in showing customers a line of footwear combining quality and price appeal.

Insurance Protection Is Needed Against Slippery Winter Roads

We are likely to have cold rains, slippery roads during the holidays, and for the remainder of the winter. Are you protected against the hazards of the road? Are your loved ones safeguarded against want and suffering if you should be claimed—as so many are being every day—a victim of the ever-mounting epidemic of mishaps?

Speeding of a car is not always reckless driving, and driving a car slowly is not always safe driving. Speed is a major cause, but not the major cause of auto accidents.

Drivers need to develop a sense of "relativity regarding speed." Forty miles on a lightly traveled country road may be safe, under some conditions, but dangerous under others.

Depend on common sense rather than the speedometer. Adjust speed to conditions and always observe prescribed regulations.

The main thing to be considered now, however, is: Are you insured and fully protected? If not, The Atlanta Constitution offers you a new paper insurance feature service which is well worth your consideration. Get this insurance today—for tomorrow may be too late!

The Constitution offers you the famous travel accident policy issued by the North American Accident Insurance Company of Chicago. This insurance is offered to subscribers and immediate dependent members of a subscriber's family between the ages of 15 and 60 on the one subscription going into that home at the small registration fee of $1 each per policy per year.

The policy The Constitution offers you provides for payment of sums ranging downward from $10,000 for travel, $1,000 for auto and pedestrian deaths resulting from certain specified accidents, heavy sums for permanent injuries, and $10 weekly indemnity for total disability resulting from the accidents set forth in the policy. All this for only $1 registration fee—just about 2 cents a week.

The policy is issued by the North American Accident Insurance Company, of Chicago, Ill. The reliability of this concern is proved by the fact that already more than $150,000 in cash has been paid on claims to Constitution policy holders.

This insurance is offered to old and new subscribers alike. One who is now taking the daily and Sunday Constitution, or will subscribe for some through carrier in Atlanta or suburbs, through an out-of-town carrier or dealer, paying for the paper weekly, monthly, or otherwise, is a subscriber and is eligible.

Paid-in-advance mail subscribers can also have this insurance by paying the small registration fee of $1 in addition to the subscription price.

Those living in Atlanta and suburbs finding it inconvenient to pay the $1 registration fee in advance can pay 20 cents registration fee with the ap-

3.2 BEER FAVORED IN HOUSE BALLOT

Brew Measure Swept Through by Democrats by Vote of 230 to 165.

Senate leaders announced plans for prompt action in their branch after the Christmas holidays. The bill will be sent to the judiciary committee for a study of its provisions modifying the Volstead law and then to the finance committee to act on the tax provision.

Tax of $5.
In addition to legalizing 3.2 per cent beer by weight, the measure provides a tax of $5 a barrel; federal protection to dry states, and leaves to the states the regulation of distribution, except that wholesale and retail sellers must obtain federal licenses.

The ways and means committee estimated it would return up to $300,000 annually in revenue. It was adopted as one of the democratic's major legislative proposals for the short session. As described by Representative Bankhead, democrat, Alabama, who presided, "its purpose is fundamentally for revenue."

There had been some doubt in the minds of Garner and other legislative leaders that enough votes could be mustered to approve it. They were happy tonight, back-slapping each other. Majority Leader Rainey congratulated Chairman Collier, for being the first to pilot through the house in the short session a major democratic proposal.

"It will give the people a real beverage to drink and the federal treasury much-needed revenue," Collier said. "We got more than the number of votes we expected, but the opponents did not get as many as we thought they would."

Senators Watch.
Action came after three and a half hours of exciting debate, watched by a number of senators, including Robinson, of Arkansas, and Barkley, of Kentucky, and hundreds of spectators who filled the galleries.

The drys were repulsed early in the day by a teller vote of 163 to 118 when they attempted to wreck the bill on a motion by Representative Sivovich, democrat, New York, who unwittingly gave them parliamentary advantage on a motion to strike out the enacting clause.

Beer Bill Opposed By 82 'Lame Ducks'

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Eighty-two members of the house defeated in November for re-election voted against the Collier beer bill today.

The 89 republican lame ducks voting no were: Adkins, Allen, Biddle, Bowman, Brand of Ohio, Burnett, Cable, Campbell of Iowa, Chipfield, Christgau, Christopher, Cole of Iowa, Colton, Crall, Davenport, Eaton of Colorado, Finley, French, Garber, Hall of Illinois, Hall of North Dakota, Hardy, Haugen, Hawley, Hoch, Hogg of West Virginia, Holiday, Houston, Morton D. Hull, Ketcham, Kopp, Lankford, Leavitt, Lovette, McClintock, Magrady, Manlove, Michener, Moore of Ohio, Mouser, Murphy, Nelson of Maine, Nelson of Wisconsin, Partridge, Purnell, Ramseyer, Robinson, Anders of New York, Seiberling, Selvig, Shott, Simmons, Smith of Idaho, Snow, Sparks, Strong of Kansas, Stull, Summers, Swanson, Swing, Temple, Thatcher, Timberlake, Underhill, Wason, Weeks, Williamson, Wood of Indiana, Yates.

The 13 democratic lame ducks who voted against the measure were: Barton, Dominick, Eslick, Fishburne, Hare, Lankford of Georgia, Mohler, Moore of Kentucky, Nelson of Missouri, Norton of Nebraska, Patterson, Stevenson, Wright.

Sixty lame ducks voted for the bill. The democratic "anti-bill" vote was: Collier, Davis of Tennessee, Dietrich, Evans of Montana, Flood, Fulbright, Igoe, Johnson of Missouri, Kunz, Lichtenauer, Overton, Owen, Stewart, Turner, Yon.

Republicans—Aldrich, Andrews, Arentz, Bachmann, Balrige, Barbour, Burdick, Campbell of Pennsylvania, Chase, Chundinoff, Clague, Clancy, Cooke, Coyle, Curry, Davis of Pennsylvania, Dyer, Erik, Estep, Golder, Hadley, Hopkins, William E. Hull, Johnson of South Dakota, Johnson of Washington, Kading, Kendall, La Guardia, Lofboor, Maas, Niedringhaus, Nolan, Person, Pittenger, Harcourt J. Pratt, Ruth Pratt, Schaefer, Schneider, Shreve, Stafford, Sullivan of Pennsylvania, White, Wyatt.

Of strength, the wets then slipped down in quick succession about two dozen amendments, including one to reduce the alcoholic content from 3.2 per cent to 2.75 per cent.

It was the most severe defeat suffered by the house prohibitionists in many years. Only last spring they defeated the O'Connor-Hull beer bill, 228 to 169. The vote today is almost a complete reversal of the representative strength of the two groups, but it fell far short of the 272-to-144 vote for the outright repeal resolution defeated by six votes on the first day of the session.

Party lines were shattered in the final vote. Leaders made no attempt to control their forces holding it was not a party matter. Among the 220 votes for the bill, 133 democrats; 96 republicans, and one farmer-laborite were recorded. Sixty-four democrats joined 101 republicans in voting against the bill. Lame ducks voting for included 17 democrats and 43 republicans and voting against, 12 democrats and 69 republicans.

Repeal Plan Framed.
Early in the day, the senate judiciary subcommittee reached an agreement on a section of a repeal resolution outlawing the saloon. It plans to submit the completed measure to the full group early in January for action.

The drys frightened the beer supporters when they forced two votes on Sivovich's motion to strike out the enacting clause. Sivovich, who yesterday had told the house that beer contained the same ingredients as milk, had made the motion in order to gain the floor to speak against an amendment by Representative Mapes, republican, Michigan, which proposed to declare milk and beer as identical in contents. After speaking, the New Yorker sought to withdraw his motion. Representative Mouser, of Ohio, a leading prohibitionist and republican, defeated for re-election to the next congress, took advantage of the parliamentary situation to force a vote.

There were but a few wets on the floor at the time and when a standing vote was ordered, Representative Bankhead, who was in the chair, counted slowly and announced a vote of 132 to 108. Mouser and Representative Blanton, democrat, Texas, objected to the count and demanded a vote by tellers.

Take Control.
A hurry call was sent out by the party whips and even Speaker Garner was brought into the teller line. The wets piled up a vote of 163 to 118, and from then on took control.

The second assault came in the amendment proposed by Representative Michener, of Michigan, assistant republican leader, who was re-elected in the November elections.

He proposed that the alcoholic content be reduced from 3.2 per cent to 2.75 per cent. The prohibitionists expected this to go over, but when a standing vote was ordered, only 75 supported Michener and 124 voted in opposition.

Michener told the house "there is grave doubt of the constitutionality of a 2 per cent beer and I for one believe the supreme court would hold it unconstitutional." He added:

"In my experience as a prosecuting attorney, I have seen men drunk on draft beer that did not contain more than 4 per cent alcohol by volume. I can not vote for 3.2 beer, while I keep my present belief that it is intoxicating. I would violate my oath of office if I did."

He predicted that passage of the 3.2 per cent bill would deal the "cause

U. S. Carriers To Accept Mail Sent to Birds

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Rural mail carriers may henceforth accept contributions of cracked corn and small grain to be fed to birds perishing in heavy snow along their routes.

Permission was given by Arch Coleman, first assistant postmaster-general, at the request of officials of the Audubon societies.

The grain should be mailed but such an address as "Mr. and Mrs. Bird" in care of rural carriers is sufficient to insure delivery.

High Spots in Fight On Prohibition Laws

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(AP)—High spots in prohibition legislation during the past 15 years were:

1917—August 1 senate votes eighteenth amendment.
December 17—House votes the amendment, 287 to 100.

1919—January 16, Nebraska becomes thirty-sixth state to ratify the amendment.

January 20—Eighteenth amendment to the constitution proclaimed to become effective January 16, 1920.

July 22—House passes national prohibition act (Volstead law), establishing one-half of 1 per cent alcoholic limit.

September 4—Senate passes Volstead act.

October 27—President Wilson vetoes Volstead act. House overrides veto.

October 28—Senate overrides veto.
January 16—prohibition amendment effective.

June 7—Supreme court upholds Volstead act.

1921—June 27 house approves Willis-Campbell "anti-beer" bill.

November 18—Senate passes "anti-beer" bill.

1925—February 15 house defeats measure to prohibit poisoning of industrial alcohol.

1925—February 19 senate approves Jones "five and ten" law providing stiffer penalties.

February 24—House approves "five and ten" law.

1930—May 14 senate defeats measure to prohibit poisoning of industrial alcohol.

February 2 senate refuses to remove restrictions on physicians' liquor prescriptions.

1932—March 14 house, 228 to 169, defeats motion to consider resolution to repeal eighteenth amendment.

May 18—Senate, 60 to 23, defeats 4 per cent beer bill.

May 18—Senate, 61 to 24, defeats 3 per cent beer bill.

July 16—Senate by a vote of 35 to 21 takes up consideration of 3.2 amendment to eighteenth amendment.

December 5—House fails by narrow margin of 271 to 144 to pass the repeal resolution (two-thirds vote necessary for passage).

December 21—House passes 3.2 per cent beer bill, 230 to 165.

Small Difference.
A former distiller, Representative William E. Hull, republican, Illinois, answered Michener by asserting that the difference between 2.75 beer and 3.2 is so small that no one, not even a layman, could taste two glasses and tell the difference.

"The only reason the committee recommended 3.2 is to allow beer that has the extracts and flavor necessary to make it good beer," he said. "There isn't any difference in the intoxicating qualities of 3.2 and 2.75 beer because neither is intoxicating."

A more by Representative O'Connor, democrat, New York, co-author of the rejected O'Connor-Hull beer bill in the last session, to have an amendment adopted declaring beer of 3.2 per cent to be non-intoxicating, was quickly disposed of by a voice vote.

Representative LaGuardia (republican, New York) sought to have wine legalized, but the chair ruled his amendment in violation of parliamentary procedure under which the beer bill was being considered.

A former bartender, Representative Palmisano, democrat, Maryland, proposed to reduce the tax from $5 to $3 a barrel "to insure a little beer for workmen" but his amendment was defeated. O'Connor offered an amendment to increase it to $7.50 a barrel, then without explanation, withdrew it.

Long a proponent of beer, Representative Schaefer, republican, Wisconsin, sought to insert a provision to "protect the home brewer from the federal prohibition officers," but he was shouted down. When he demanded a standing vote, it was defeated 85 to 35.

Veto Seen.
The question of President Hoover's attitude toward the legislation arose today, as it did yesterday during debate.

Representative Sabath, democrat, Illinois, one of the bill's staunch supporters, said he felt "the president up to the influence of the prohibition leaders and the Anti-Saloon League will veto it."

"If he does, I'm afraid that we will not be able to pass it over his veto," the Illinois democrat said, however, that if the bill failed this session it would be passed next session, along with repeal of the 18th amendment.

A final attempt was made by Representative Crowther, of New York, republican member of the ways and means committee, to kill the measure by sending it back to the committee.

Speaker Garner, who had resumed the gavel, quickly put the question. Members were tense, as were the spectators in the galleries. The motion was voted down by a roaring voice vote.

Bishop W. P. Thirkield Blames Drys
For Passage of Beer Bill by House

Blame for the passage of the beer bill by the house and the apparent ascendancy of the wets was laid at the door of the prohibitionists by Bishop Wilbur P. Thirkield, founder and first president of Gammon Theological Seminary. The bishop came here from New York Wednesday to deliver the annual address at the seminary this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The mistake the prohibitionists made, he said, was in resting on their oars and depending too much on political strategy. He found a parallel between the national situation today and that existing in Atlanta 1885, when Bishop Thirkield took a leading part in the prohibition fight here 49 years ago.

The victory in 1885 in Atlanta was for the drys, he said. "When the election was forced by the wets in 1887 the prosperity of the city furnished strong argument for prohibition," he said. "Grady was the dry campaigner. The last meeting of the campaign was held in the old Maddox-Rucker warehouse. The speakers were Mr. Grady, Dr. J. B. Hawthorne and myself.

"We had the argument, the torchlight processions and the crowds, but the wets produced the votes."

He said that the prohibitionists were over-confident. Today, he said, let the same condition exist. The drys, depending on political power, failed to educate the people and especially the younger generation, on the value of temperance. The wets out-generated the drys.

Bishop Thirkield said that education of negro ministers had not kept pace with that of the white, and more college-bred men were needed in the ministry. He said, however, that the church attendance of both races was increasing. He is chairman of the commission on worship of the Federal Council of Churches in America. He came to Atlanta in 1883 to take charge of the seminary. Then it had an endowment of $1,200 a year. Now its endowment is $500,000.

WIDE BENEFIT SEEN IN HOUSE BEER VOTE

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(UP)—"A definite stimulus to the improvement of business conditions" is seen by Bernard Lichtenberg, past president and director of the Association of National Advertisers in today's beer vote by the house of representatives.

"Collateral industries and groups, the farmers, the automotive industry through trucking, the retail grocer and even the cooper refrigerator through advertising will all benefit," Lichtenberg said. "In our own field of advertising the evidence points toward an annual advertising expenditure for beer of at least $100,000,000, the majority of which would be in newspaper space."

"There are, however, dangers in the merchandising situation which must not be overlooked," he told the United Press in an exclusive interview here.

"Brewers must realize that it will be impractical to merchandise and distribute beer in the way they did before 1918. This country does not want that beer back, and will not have it back."

Plot Against Stalin Bared by Arrests

BERLIN, Dec. 21.—(UP)—One recent arrest and a number of former government leaders have been arrested in Moscow, charged with conspiring to overthrow Josef Stalin, virtual dictator of soviet Russia, the United Press learned from a reliable source tonight.

The United Press was informed that Nikolai B. Elsmont, commissar for agriculture, was among those arrested and that V. N. Tolmashov, chief of federal motor transport, was taken into custody.

Michael Tomsky, head of the state publishing trust and former leader of the right opposition, and Alexei Rykov, commissar for posts and telegraphs and former premier, are suspected of a part in the conspiracy, it was said here.

Beer Provisions Passed by House

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(UP)—The Collier beer bill passed today by the house provides:
Legalization of beer, ale, porter, lager and similar beverages containing not more than 3.2 per cent alcohol by weight about 4 per cent by volume, in states which permit it by local law, with federal government protection guaranteed to dry states.

A tax of $5 a barrel of 31 gallons; a brewer's license fee of $1,000; retail dealers fee of $20 and wholesale dealer's fee of $50.

An effective date 30 days after enactment, but brewers may apply for licenses immediately upon enactment. No restrictions for sale, which is left to the individual state.

Brewers to qualify under the internal revenue laws, with penalties provided for license violation.

GERMANY'S JOBLESS REACHES 5,604,000
BERLIN, Dec. 21.—(UP)—Since the end of November the number of unemployed persons in Germany has increased 249,000 to a total of 5,604,000.

FORMER GERMAN KAISER ILL WITH RHEUMATISM

DOORN, Holland, Dec. 21.—(AP)—The former German kaiser, Wilhelm II, suffering from a cold and rheumatism, was confined to his room in Doorn castle today by order of his court physician.

A measure to guard him against future intruders have been again intensified. (A German, believed by the police to be mentally deranged, was caught crouching in a castle room recently with a dagger and pistol on his person.) All locks to outer gates and also to some of the doors of the castle itself have been renewed.

Copenhagen Cablegram Asks Ruth Judd's Pardon

PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 21.—(AP)—From Copenhagen, Denmark, came a cablegram today to the "president" of Arizona, asking executive clemency for Winnie Ruth Judd, convicted "trunk murderer" sentenced to hang at the state penitentiary February 17, 1933.

The message read:
"The President of Arizona, Phoenix, Ariz.
"I beg you to take care of pardon of Ruth Judd, condemned to death. My good wishes."
(Signed) EMIL DENN."

CONEY ISLAND BEACH AGAIN HIT BY BLAZE

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Fire destroyed a two-story bathhouse and other small frame buildings in a block area on the Coney Island boardwalk tonight at a loss police put at $200,000.

A brisk wind from the ocean fanned the flames and authorities, recalling the $5,000,000 blaze of last July which made 1,000 persons homeless, sounded fire alarms, calling out all the apparatus in the Borough of Brooklyn. The blaze was brought under control, however, about an hour after it started.

$3 worth of protection for $1 against stubborn winter colds

PEPSODENT ANTISEPTIC is 3 times as powerful as other leading mouth antiseptics. Hence it goes 3 times as far. And whether you buy the 25c, 50c, or $1 size, you still get 3 times as much for your money.

PLEASE stop a minute and ask yourself a question. The right answer saves you $2 out of every $3. What kind of antiseptic do you use when fighting colds—infection—unpleasant breath?

Two kinds of antiseptics
There are only two kinds. In one group you have the mouth antiseptic that kills germs only when used full strength. In the other group you have Pepsodent Antiseptic—utterly safe when used full strength, yet powerful enough to kill germs in 10 seconds even when it is diluted with 2 parts of water. Pepsodent is at least three times as powerful as other leading antiseptics. Hence, it goes 3 times as far—gives you 3 times as much for your money—and gives you greater protection against sore throat colds. Here's a fine way both to save money and safeguard your health—something you can't afford to overlook.

Use Pepsodent for safety
When choosing your antiseptic, be sure you choose the one that kills germs even when it is mixed with water. Insist on Pepsodent Antiseptic—and be sure! Be safe—and save your money.

Pepsodent Antiseptic

IMPURE BREATH

The amazing results of Pepsodent Antiseptic in fighting sore throat, colds prove its effectiveness in checking Bad Breath (Halitosis). Remember, Pepsodent is 3 times more powerful in killing germs than other leading mouth antiseptics. Remember, even when diluted with water it still kills germs.

SINGLE PENSION FUND IS SOUGHT FOR CITY

Subscriptions by Every Employee Suggested by Alderman G. E. Millican.

Abolition of separate pension funds for policemen, firemen and others, the employ of the city and establishment of a general pension fund into which every employee on the monthly pay roll must subscribe was suggested Wednesday afternoon at a meeting of the pension fund committee, headed by Alderman G. E. Millican, of the tenth ward.

The committee discussed the present "alternating" rate with which available funds are diminishing, and voted to present the matter to the three divisions, asking selection of a central committee to work out details to be submitted back to the organizations for ratification.

The central committee will be formed after the holiday season and will proceed to draft a new program at once, it was agreed, in order that any legislative authority needed may be granted at the impending session next year.

Among other suggestions offered were the following:

1. Enforced retirement of employees after 35 years' service.
2. Repayment of 60 per cent of the amount paid into the fund to any person who loses his position.
3. Elimination of politics from the fund as far as is humanly possible.
4. Equalization of payments and retirement of all beneficiaries on the same amount.
5. Increase in the amount every individual would contribute to the fund.

Millican told the committee that present funds will be exhausted in 24 months at the outside and that unless some remedial action is taken payments must stop or the city bankrupted.

Dr. Duggan's Term To End January 10

The term of office of Dr. M. L. Duggan, state superintendent of schools, will expire when the new governor takes office on January 10, the state department of law informed the superintendent Wednesday afternoon in a request for an opinion of the amendment recently ratified by the voters of Georgia. The opinion was written by Assistant Attorney-General W. K. Meadow.

In the opinion, Mr. Meadow wrote that as far as he could learn the amendment provided that Mr. Duggan's term and that of other state officers expired with the advent of the new governor and that it was ratified in the regular legal manner. Mr. Duggan, who was defeated for re-election by M. D. Collins, of Fairburn, in asking for the opinion, did not say whether he felt that the amendment did not include his office. He was the only state officer defeated in the primary of September 14.

CHRISTMAS MONEY IS SENT TEACHERS IN STATE SCHOOLS

Christmas money for the state's school teachers was placed in the mails Wednesday afternoon by the department of education after the state had turned over the final payment of the 1932 appropriation. Governor Russell signed a warrant for $271,236.73 and Dr. M. L. Duggan, the school superintendent immediately began mailing out the checks in order that they may reach the teachers before Christmas.

The payment represented six per cent of the regular school appropriation for the year. County school systems received $40,734, allotments including Albany $926, Athens $1,274, Atlanta $1,107, Columbus $2,889, Cordele $420, Decatur $708, Griffin $873, Moultrie $467, Rome $1,052, Tifton $215, Thomasville $740, Valdosta $850, Waycross $1,390.

LEGION TO PRESENT BIG KIDDIE REVUE AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Hailed as Atlanta's greatest kiddie revue, 100 students of the Gordon Eppley School of Dancing will give a performance at 8 o'clock tonight at the Atlanta Woman's Club auditorium, entire proceeds to go to Atlanta Post No. 1, American Legion, and 40 and 8 relief funds.

The organizations Wednesday paraded through Atlanta streets and a ticket sale has been pushed for the past week.

A. L. Henson, chairman of the ways and means committee of the military organizations in charge of the fund drive, has announced that every cent taken in will be diverted to relieving suffering among members and their families. Governor-elect Eugene Talmdage and Hugh Howell, chairman of the state democratic committee, have urged Atlantans to patronize the offering.

ALL SAINTS TO GIVE CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

An unusual Christmas music program will be given at All Saints church, beginning at 11 o'clock Christmas Eve, Joseph Ragan, organist and choirmaster, announced Wednesday.

All Saints' vested choir of 50 voices will sing, among other ensembles, "The Sleep of the Child Jesus," "How a Rose," "Child Jesus," "Bring a Torch," and "The Shepherd's Story." "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing," will be used as the processional for the service, and the communion hymn will be "Silent Night."

CHRISTMAS TREE PARTY PLANNED FOR HOSPITAL

Doctors at Hospital 48 having lifted the ban on entertainments for the veterans, the celebration of Christmas will begin with the annual Christmas tree party Friday night, it was announced Wednesday.

At 5:30 o'clock Friday afternoon, the sponsors of Hospital 48 will visit the patients and distribute gifts. Following this visit to the wards, the Christmas tree party will be given in the recreation building beginning at 6:30. All organizations affiliated are combining forces in the Christmas activities.

A MISFIT SUGGESTION.

Chairman Mansfield, of the rivers and harbors committee of the house, and Chairman Davis, of the merchant marine committee, both protest the suggestion of President Hoover that river and harbor work be transferred from the navy to the interior department.

The suggestion, contained in the departmental regrouping message of the president to congress, would bring about a misfit situation with regard to the engineering work, which is vital feature of all river and harbor projects.

This work is now done by army engineers, especially trained officers assigned from service in the army to this duty. Since the responsibility for the planning and completion of river and harbor development is placed on these officers, it is proper that they should remain under the supervision of the engineering division of the war department.

If this work should be transferred to the interior department, the contradictory situation would be presented of army officers, still under regulation of the war department, being under the direction of another department. Interminable confusion would ensue.

It is not surprising that a nationwide protest has arisen over the suggestion and that congressional leaders have lost no time in condemning it.

WE MUST TURN TO THE FARM.

The wisdom of the back-to-the-farm movement as the best solution of the unemployment problem is emphasized in the experience of the 6,000 families in Alabama who have left the cities for the soil this year.

Commenting on the exodus back to the farm, State Commissioner of Agriculture Stotts testifies that "most of these families have met with enough success to have sufficient food, shelter and fuel for the winter."

Instead of remaining in the cities, as the objects of charity, these families have gone back to Mother Earth for the necessities of life. They are no longer faced with the specter of starvation and, in most cases, even the long-abandoned farm houses and cabins in which they are now settled offer more protection than the quarters left behind in the cities.

Even in the coal mining sections around Birmingham, many miners, out of work for long periods, have escaped the necessity of calling upon charity by establishing farming colonies. While these miners have largely been able to produce much of the food for their families, those who did not participate in the farming movement have, as a rule, been dependent upon charity.

During the past few months the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce has sent 75 families, totaling some 300 people, to the farm. Each had been dependent upon public charity for not less than a year. All but about two of them are now self-supporting. Most of this small group will also need no further help when their crops begin to mature.

An unemployed family can be moved from the city to the farm and kept supplied with food until it can produce its own, for approximately the cost of their support in Atlanta for six months. By next summer they will have become self-supporting and only a fraction will ever again have to call upon charity.

The back-to-the-farm movement is no longer theoretical. It has been successfully tried out in practically every southern state. Most Spinoza. It is 300 years ago that Spinoza died. Condemned in his lifetime as an atheist, the house where he lived in The Hague was later described by Renan as the place where God had been seen clearest by human eyes. Historically, he belonged to the series of great men who laid the foundations of European thought up to the present time. A strange and enigmatic figure was Spinoza. He lived a quiet and retired life in the pursuit of philosophy and in the company of his books. Universities called him. He stayed in The Hague, earning his living with polishing lenses for spectacles and optical instruments. He was frugal in the extreme, but austere as his moral teaching was, he did not preach asceticism but rather, he preached the approval of a reasonable enjoyment of the pleasure of life.

Himself a victim of intolerance, he was in the highest degree tolerant in his philosophy. A great thing for a man of his time, he held that even Mohammedans could be saved. There is a story that once or twice in his life he came near abandoning his exclusiveness. Once he was about to throw himself into the political turmoil of his days and stand with the brothers De Witt, those consummate statesmen who were destroyed for their republicanism by the ambitious members of the Orange family, who had monarchic aspirations and who succeeded in the end, Spinoza saw the justice of John De Witt's policy. Spinoza was the great pleader for freedom of thought.

That quiet, lone bachelor, tubercular and sickly was one of humanity's greatest sons. All over the world he has been commemorated this month by the learned societies of our time.

Tuning in on "Quito Hum." Shut away in a laboratory at Rutgers by a group of scientists have for months been listening to the noise made by female mosquitoes specially imported from India and fed on a special food; analyzing the noise, devising a method of imitating it accurately by means of oscillating valve circuits, inventing a trap for the males attracted by the artificial hum.

The experiments were undertaken by the British Thomson-Houston industrial research laboratory at the request of a malaria expert from India. They form part of the campaign against the ravages of tropical fevers, among which malaria is one of the most difficult to eradicate. It has long been known that the malarial mosquito is attracted by the hum made by the female. The problem to solve is how can this hum be imitated with sufficient accuracy to draw the males in millions into a suitably designed trap. So far experts have listened carefully to such a hum, to the sound made by the females. They have analyzed it scientifically and then they have set to work to devise a hum which through a reproducer will give out exactly similar sounds.

If he can, between this time and March 4, bring order out of the chaos now existing, so much the better. If he is not successful in doing this, then it will be up to Roosevelt to tackle the job when he becomes president.

Certainly it will be better for Roosevelt to assume this responsibility without having been involved in previous unsuccessful efforts.

ASIATIC TRADE GROWS.

Commercial and governmental reports from Asia somewhat surprisingly indicate that trade conditions in the far east are stronger than in any other section of the world.

Despite the fall in value of the Japanese yen and the continued disturbances in China and Manchuria, our exports to Asiatic countries this year have been only 5 per cent less than in 1931, the most favorable reports of American exports anywhere in the world. The exports of these countries were also more nearly normal than with the nations on any other continent.

The improvement in conditions generally in the Asiatic countries during the past two decades is evidenced by the fact that their exports in 1931 were 28 per cent greater than they were before the war. Some of this increase has disappeared during this year, but when it is considered that the average trade loss for the world from its 1913 export volume up to the year of 1932 is 18 per cent, Asia's balance in her favor assumes real importance.

If You Use a Faster Vehicle, You Must Drive a Shorter Time or Go Too Far

By Robert Quillen

If the ordinary American is to prosper and find happiness in the years to come, he must see to it that men who have authority solve the one great problem of our times.

Some of our present-day problems are products of the depression and their solution will be automatic when the depression ends.

But there are others that result from some basic fault in our plan of civilization, and these will continue to trouble us in good times and bad until their cause is removed.

Chief of these is the problem of controlling production. Our machine age has learned to produce too much and looks in vain for a market while pauperized millions ask for alms.

Do you remember the controlled production of the war period? The man power of civilization was under arms. The millions in uniform were "unemployed," as were the other millions engaged in making tools for slaughter.

Yet the production of necessary and useful things was so well controlled that a fraction of the adult population, aided by machinery, was able to produce all that the world needed.

The machine's ability to produce has increased since the war. A fraction of the world's workers, aided by machinery, still can produce all that mankind needs.

If more men are employed, the machines will produce too much. If men who are not employed cannot buy the machine's products.

If that is true, isn't it a great folly to work one group of men eight hours a day while another group has no work at all?

If idle men need profitable work and the machine needs cash customers, why is the problem difficult to solve?

Control production to match the world's needs; divide the labor of production to give every man a job.

If a farmer raises six horses, will he work early and late to produce enough feed for twelve?

Or, if he must feed six in any case, will he overwork three while the others stand idle in the barn?

HOLLYWOOD IN PERSON

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Dec. 21.—Forecasts of the failure of Janet Gaynor's marriage to Lyndell Peck have been made by the gossip columns of the wedding day.

Their prophecies would seem to be justified by the recent separation of the couple, said to be "temporary" in nature. Lyndell Peck is occupying the home in Beverly Hills the two have lived in since their wedding and her home is once more back with her mother.

The little star's sudden decision to marry a young San Francisco adman was considered a whim by many of her friends at the time her engagement was announced. Few thought then that Janet "knew her own mind" or that the romance would ever culminate in a wedding.

Since her sudden rise to stardom in "Seventh Heaven" the little girl who went from extra to star overnight, Frank Rostage got precious little footage and the principals nearly got gray hairs trying to keep on the friendly side of the longhorns.

One hundred and twenty longhorn steers used by Harry Pickford in her present production of "Secrets" nearly wrecked the set when they decided to get into the Christmas spirit. They smashed a few cameras, to give Leslie Howard the run of his life—one steel pipe broke and a camera was smashed.

Premier Considers Continued Negotiations on Question Indispensable.

X-Ray Burns Are Fatal To Dr. Georges Haret
PARIS, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Dr. Georges Haret, eminent French radiologist and head of the radiology department at Lariboisiere hospital, died last night as a result of X-ray burns incurred in scientific career beginning with treatment of wounded soldiers during the World War. He was 58 years old.

Infection Menaces Recovery of Nitti

CHICAGO, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Infection began today to menace the recovery of Frank Nitti, wounded gangster, his attorney informing Judge Frank M. Padden it would be a month before he could predict the outcome.

Removed to the private hospital of his father-in-law after $25,000 bond was furnished last night, Nitti was still in a desperate condition from four bullet wounds inflicted by police Monday.

No attempt has been made to remove three bullets imbedded in his body.

When and if he recuperates, Nitti must face charges of assault to kill, based on his alleged shooting of Policeman Harry Land during Monday's raid. Nitti is reported to have denied that he shot Land and claimed his weapon was not fired.

FRENCH ARMY COSTS SLASHED $3,600,000
PARIS, Dec. 21.—(AP)—France effected a $3,600,000 saving in the upkeep of her land military forces in 1932, according to a decree the Journal is publishing tomorrow.

A law voted July 15 called for reduction by $2,700,000, but the war minister—at the time he was Joseph Paul-Boncour, now the premier—found further economies.

DO HEADACHES DRIVE YOU CRAZY?
It's the worst kind of folly to dope and drug yourself every time you have one of those blinding, throbbing headaches. For drugs only relieve the pain for the moment, and in a little while the headache returns worse than ever and you have to drug yourself all over again. You've got to get at the cause.

Poisons created in your own body cause these severe headaches, and you must remove the poisons to get relief of a lasting nature.

By starting the new harmless Cream of Nujol treatment, today, you may free yourself from this constant torment.

This new form of Nujol is specially designed to rid you of poisons which very often cause this condition.

Cream of Nujol contains no drugs, and does not in any way interfere with work or play. It is delicious to take. Moreover, you can use this modern treatment at a cost of but a few cents a day.

Take Cream of Nujol night and morning. Begin this very night and give it a real trial. Buy it at any drug counter.

Railroad Robin Reaches Refuge in Sunny South

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 21.—(AP)—A robin red breast traveled hundreds of miles and arrived here today just another "snow bird" for the police department to look after.

The robin was rescued by the Racine, Wis., police department after having been hit by a stone, and was nursed back to health by Chief Grover C. Lutter. But Racine has been having 10 below zero weather lately and Chief Lutter knew that when it gets that cold robins don't thrive.

So he boxed the little bird up and sent him to Chief A. J. Roberts of the Jacksonville police.

Chief Roberts released the bird from his office window, but it was too weak to fly away and now he is in a pen behind the station.

"Amnesia Victim" Says He Was Doped, Robbed
A man who said he is Archie Lockhart, Greenville, S. C., electrician, accepted one drink in a Jacksonville rooming house during a card game Tuesday and woke up Wednesday night in Grady hospital with $90 missing, according to the story obtained by hospital attaches from Lockhart as physicians treated him for what appeared to be a case of amnesia.

Lockhart was still in a daze late Wednesday night, but recovered sufficiently to identify himself and tell his story, physicians said.

He was found by Patrolman J. L. Whitley wandering in the railroad yards near the Union station.

Hamilton Fish Hits Export of Munitions

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(AP)—American bankers have loaned $20,000,000 to Bolivia for purchase of arms to continue her undeclared war with Paraguay, Representative Hamilton Fish, republican, New York, charged today.

Most of the money for munitions, he declared, was spent in England.

Leaving the White House, where he said he had urged President Hoover to sponsor a worldwide treaty renouncing the sale or export of arms, munitions or implements of war to any foreign nation, Fish said:

"The use of American money for arms and munitions in Bolivia is simply incredible. The American people, through congress, must insist that the question of traffic in arms be dealt with without further delay or evasion."

Farmers in Soviet Russia Far Short in Grain Raising

MOSCOW, Dec. 21.—(AP)—The state farms, to which the soviet government looks not only to furnish approximately one-seventh of its grain resources, but also to set an example for collective and individual peasants, were pictured tonight as having fallen badly in their deliveries of grain to the state.

Acknowledging that this branch of agriculture had fulfilled only 77.8 per cent of the collections assessed against it and supposed to be completed December 15, the newly-created commissariat for grain and cattle-breeding state farms issued stringent orders for immediate improvement in the situation, which is described as "shameful."

Although 62 scattered state farms were credited with completing their collections, the commissariat pointed out that not a single grain trust, each of which comprises a group of state farms, had met its obligations to the government thus far.

It condemned those farms in Siberia, Eastern Siberia, Western Siberia and the Urals as most backward, directing attention to the fact that the East Siberian trust had the worst showing, with only 56 per cent of the collections completed.

Placing responsibility directly on the shoulders of the individual directors of the state farms, the order threatened them with arrest and trial unless effective measures are taken to complete collections forthwith.

At the same time it announced that none of the directors would be permitted to come to Moscow until deliveries have been fulfilled; that immediate steps should be taken to improve the food and clothing supply of the workers, and that transportation should be reorganized to provide maximum facilities for the movement of grain from these farms.

The state farms differ from collective farms in that they are created by the state much on the same order as a factory with regularly employed workers whose labor at fixed salaries. These farms were assessed a total of 90,000,000 bushels of grain to be delivered to the state in 1932, compared with 64,800,000 bushels in 1931.

The wife of M. I. Kalinin, president of soviet Russia, is the manager of a state farm in Western Siberia, but her name was not mentioned among those officials cited for failure to complete the plan.

City Firemen Aid Tiny Baby Girl In Fight for Life Against 'Flu'

Kept alive since last Friday night by a steady flow of oxygen administered by members of the fire department, little Myrtle Duncan, 8-month-old daughter of Mrs. Savannah Duncan, of 312 Kirtwood avenue, S. E., was in a critical condition Wednesday night at her home. The child is the victim of pneumonia, influenza and whooping cough, it was said.

The baby has been ill for several weeks and last Friday night her physician said only a supply of oxygen for her congested lungs could save her life. The fire department rescue squad was called and an inhalator and several tanks were taken to the home.

Since Friday night a little oxygen has been given, it was said.

Chief John Terrell said that his men had been in constant attendance to the child. H. H. Ewing is in charge and R. B. Megee and Lieutenant J. B. McDaniel are aiding in the fight to save the baby's life. Myrtle's father has taken an interest in the case and have visited the baby.

When the inhalator was first applied it was necessary to keep the oxygen flowing constantly, the child was struggling for life-giving air. For the last few days such gains have been made that short breathing spells have been allowed, though her condition Wednesday was worse than Tuesday, it was said. Firemen keep watch over the child night and day, many of them working at the department during the day and staying with little Myrtle during the night. Her father is an employee of the Fulton Bag and Cotton mill. She has four brothers.

Mississippi's Solons Pass Relief Measure

JACKSON, Miss., Dec. 21.—(AP)—Three relief bills were on Mississippi's statute books tonight to show for the legislature's efforts to lessen the burden of its taxpaying citizenry.

The two-day special session adjourned sine die at 6 p. m.

The solons enacted a partial-payment tax measure and squeezed in a bill materially reducing motor vehicle registration costs.

Not satisfied with mere adoption of the two relief measures, they made provision that citizens who cannot pay road commutation taxes for 1932 will not be prosecuted for at least a year.

Then, to round out the speedy performance, the lawmakers ground out nine local and private bills and adopted five concurrent resolutions before adjourning. The session's administration's first venture into tax remedial legislation.

PICTURIZED VERSION OF HEMINGWAY BOOK SHOWN IN PIGGOTT
PIGGOTT, Ark., Dec. 21.—(AP)—Ernest Hemingway's more or less adopted "home town" turned out tonight to see the picturization of his book, "A Farewell to Arms," but the author was not there for curtain calls.

Hemingway was away on a hunting trip, but his wife and parents-in-law saw the picture and were quoted afterward as saying they were "deeply moved."

The version shown, brought here by the film company, was the author's benefit, adhered closely to the ending of the book, instead of a traditional movie happy ending.

When plans were announced some time ago to bring the picture here for a first showing, Hemingway expressed himself as indifferent. He said he had learned the picture had a different ending from the book, but that was the work of the producers as he had no hand in the making of the film. He said then he would not see the picture.

The author, here with his wife visiting her parents, was expected back from his hunting trip tomorrow and another showing of the picture is scheduled for tomorrow. Whether he would see the picture, however, was not known.

All proceeds from the showing of the picture here are to be given to charity.

10 Corpses Reported In Valparaiso Bay

SANTIAGO, Chile, Dec. 21.—(UP)—The presence of 10 corpses in Valparaiso Bay, all tied to iron rails, was reported by a diver working in the bay today.

One of the bodies, which he recovered, was believed that of Professor Anabalon, who disappeared last July. The diver reported the bodies were all about 600 yards from the shore.

Professor Anabalon was a communist agitator, particularly active during the regime of Carlos Davila. The Association of Professors of Chile has asked the government to send another diver down to recover the other bodies.

Better Than Whiskey For Colds and Coughs

The sensation of the drug trade is Aspirinal, the two-minute relief for colds and coughs due to colds. Authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories, tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed, and proclaimed by the people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, cough and croup, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are supplied with the wonderful elixir, so all you have to do is to step into the nearest drug store, ask for a bottle of Aspirinal and tell the clerk to serve you two teaspoonfuls. With your watch in your hands, take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel the distressing symptoms of your cold or cough fading away within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

Take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and children, for Aspirinal is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and the most agreeable cold and cough remedy for children as well as adults. Quietest relief for catarrhal croup and children's choking up at night. —(adv.)

Yale and Mercer Return to Georgia Football Schedule for 1933

TRAILING THE GEORGIA TECH TEAM.—(By Air Mail.) December.—University of California at Los Angeles, abbreviated to U. C. L. A., had one of the most curious records in football during the last season.

The team which lost to Florida last week beat Oregon and Stanford. And the story of those two games is worth telling.

Both were won AFTER the gun had been fired ending play. It happened this way: In the Oregon game U. C. L. A. was back on its own two-yard line—in the coffin corner—trying to get out. They threw a pass in desperation.

The receiver caught it and started running. He was behind the entire Oregon team. At the 50-yard line the gun shot, ending the play. He ran on, winning the game after it was over.

In the Stanford game two blocked punts paved the way for victory. But the curious part about it was that one of them was blocked after the gun had shot.

The ball was passed—the gun shot—the punt was blocked and an U. C. L. A. man got on it for the winning touchdown.

Once a play begins, of course, it is completed no matter if the gun fires before its completion.

ELECTRIC TIMING.

The coast uses electrical clocks at each end of the stadium—they being synchronized with the timer's clock on the table by the sidelines. Few coaches let the field judge hold a watch—the theory being that he misses plays while looking at his watch.

"I don't like for the field judge to use a watch," said Ingram. "He misses plays while looking at it. He can't put his entire mind on the game. The electrical clocks permit the quarterbacks to see exactly what time is left at any moment they want to know. It helps the game."

The officials on the coast drew the praise of the Tech team. They thought the best they had seen all year.

Once Herb Dana, famous referee, dropped his handkerchief to mark a spot from which a pass had been thrown. He then had the chain brought out, doubting that it had been passed from the required five yards back. It happened he was wrong. But he didn't know.

No southern official would permit such doubt to exist—which is one reason there was so much opposition to the officiating in the south last fall. Their attitude was all wrong. They ALWAYS knew. Dana wasn't sure. He stopped the game until he found out.

NOTRE DAME-U. S. C.

There were two stories which were told about the U. S. C.-Notre Dame game which proved interesting. One was that the quarterback sent in late in the game was given five plays to use. He used four and they got the ball to the five-yard line. And there he got smart and tried one he thought was better. He lost 44 yards and the scoring chance was gone.

The other concerns the pass receiver who caught the first pass for a touchdown against Notre Dame. Some of the Notre Dame coaches thought the receiver had slipped in at guard and pulled out to catch the pass.

The movies failed to show where the receiver came from—showing only the start of the play and then the receiver catching it.

ANDERSON AND SMITH.

It was fine meeting Hank Anderson and Clipper Smith, of Notre Dame, and Santa Clara, respectively.

They both sent their regards to the southern coaches from Notre Dame—Chet Wynne, Roger Kiley, Harry Mehre, Rex Enright, Clipper Smith, Chuck Collins—gosh what a list—and all the others.

Clipper Smith is the player for whom the Clipper Smith at North Carolina State got his nickname.

Trojans Now Working On Running Attack

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Either Coach Howard Jones is temporarily satisfied with his Southern California team's defense in preparation for the Pittsburgh football game January 2 or he has run out of ideas on what the Panthers might spring in the Rose Bowl classic.

Troy's head man gave defensive practice in today's practice session, but concentrated on improvement of his running attack.

By comparison, the 1932 Trojans have lacked the power of the aggressions of the previous years. Today's practice brought the total hours put in an grid coach to somewhat over 200 with Dr. Walter B. Fieseler, squad physician, on hand to keep check on the condition of the players.

Except for a few minor hurts, the squad of 37 has been in good shape since before the Notre Dame game, with no traces of influenza, bad ankles or knees.

Bob Erskine has had a sore rib since the encounter with the Rams, but was an active participant in today's work.

Dr. Fieseler is most concerned with the possibility of the players getting a bit stale after the long season, which opened more than three months ago.

The doctor's usual shout of: "Time to go eat," is as popular with the team as "fall out," is to the rookie.

Alumni Will Help

Pay V. M. I. Coach

RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 21.—(AP)—Richmond alumni of Virginia Military Institute today launched a movement to raise funds within the alumni association to make possible retention of the services of Ed Hess as line coach of the Cadet football squad.

The plan was unanimously agreed to last night at the December meeting of the V. M. I. Club of Richmond, at which several local alumni expressed surprise and disappointment that the V. M. I. athletic council had found it necessary to dispense with Hess's services because of lack of finances.

It is the plan of the local alumni to raise a fund sufficient to make up the difference between the salary paid Hess and that available for a new line coach to succeed him.

Meehan To Stay

At Present Post

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(UP)—Brother Anselm, director of athletics at Manhattan College, announced tonight that John F. "Chick" Meehan would continue as head football coach in 1933 and for as many years after that as he wishes.

This announcement was made at Meehan's request in order to deny recent rumors that he was considering a shift to some other school.

IRISH DEFEAT OF BIGGEST UPSET

Panthers Pull "Surprise of Year" Over Another "Wonder Team"

By Alan Gould, Associated Press Sports Editor.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(AP)—The Irish football team, which was associated Press poll, 1932 was filled with one surprise after another for the nation's sports experts but the biggest shock of all was Pittsburgh's 12-0 upset of Notre Dame, at a time when the Ramblers were being widely hailed as another "wonder team."

The Panther conquest was voted the "surprise of the year" by 43 out of 142 responses to this feature of the second annual poll. Proof that the experts found it difficult all season to "do" Notre Dame was revealed by the fact 15 other observers named the Ramblers' 21-0 victory over Army as the biggest upset. By the time Notre Dame got around to taking a beating from Southern California, the boys apparently were preserving an open mind on the outcome, for not a single vote was cast to include this result among the year's surprises.

CARR VOTED BEST.

Individually, the outstanding upsets of 1932 were credited to Bill Carr, who caused a series of tremors on the Pacific coast in the summer by beating the great Ben Eastman in three record-smashing foot races. The element of surprise, of course, diminished after Carr's first victory at 440 yards in the intercollegiate championships, but the University of Pennsylvania received 20 votes altogether and clinched second place in the balloting.

The New York Yankees, already acclaimed as the year's outstanding team in any sport, were the biggest baseball upset by taking four straight from the Chicago Cubs in the World Series. On the basis of the voting, the biggest Olympic surprise was Eddie Tolan's "double" in the sprints and the triumph of the Japanese men's swimming team over the United States. Ellsworth Vines' straight-set conquest of Henri Cochet in the final round of the American tennis championship singles was voted the leading tennis upset.

RESULTS OF POLL.

Results of the poll on outstanding upsets or surprises of 1932:

Pittsburgh's 12-0 football victory over Notre Dame, total vote 43.

Bill Carr's three foot-racing triumphs over Ben Eastman, total vote 20.

Notre Dame's 21-0 defeat of Army in football, total vote 15.

New York Yankees' sweep of World Series with Cubs, total vote 11.

Ellsworth Vines' defeat of Henri Cochet in United States tennis final, total vote 7.

Eddie Tolan's double triumph over Metelke in Olympic dashes, total vote 5.

Victory of Japanese swimming team in Olympics, total vote 5.

Jack Sharkey's defeat of Max Schmeling for heavyweight title, total vote 3.

Defeat of Texas Christian by Southern Methodist in basketball, total vote 3.

Jim Bausch's record-breaking victory in Olympic decathlon, total vote 2.

South Carolina's tie with Auburn in football, total vote 2.

Comeback of Chicago Cubs after Hornsby's release, total vote 2.

Ross Somerville's victory in United States amateur golf, total vote 2.

Failure of Gene Sarazen to qualify for P. G. A. championship, total vote 2.

Olin Dutra's sensational play in winning P. G. A. title, total vote 2.

Colgate's football victory over Princeton, total vote 2.

One vote each for the following: Cubs' collapse in World Series; resignation of John M. Johnson, manager of the Giants after 30 years; failure of St. Louis Cardinals to finish in first division; play of Arnold Herber for Green Bay Packers; elimination of Gene Venzke and defeat of Frank Wykoff in Olympic trials; Ralph Hill's performance in winning Olympic 5,000-meter race; Olin Dutra's finish, 68-65, in Metropolitan open golf; Gene Sarazen's comeback in the last two rounds of the United States open golf tournament; Virginia Van Wie's victory over Glenna Collett Vare for national women's golf championship; collapse of Philadelphia Athletics; Auburn's rise in Southern conference football ranks.

REAL ESTATE TAX ABOLITION IS FAVORED

Morton Turner Says Farmers Cannot Live Under Present Burden.

QUITMAN, Ga., Dec. 21.—(AP)—Abolition of the state tax on real estate for the relief of the farmer is advocated by S. Morton Turner, state senator from the seventh district and candidate for the presidency of the senate.

He said the burden of taxation now bearing down on the farmer was so heavy that it would not permit them to make a living.

"All of us," he said, "are dependent on the farmer, either directly or indirectly, and it is up to us to make it possible for the farmer to exist and prosper. The first step in this direction is to abolish the state tax on real estate."

"Naturally, the revenue thus lost must be made up in another way and to supplant that revenue is another of the problems of the state," he said, "but the adoption of a reasonable sales tax, exempting, of course, farm products and the bare necessities of life."

He advocated strict government economy and equitable reduction of salaries, warning that "we must not cut too deep, however, particularly in regard to school funds."

He said the voters in the recent primary approved certain administrative measures "which should be given priority" in the legislature.

PARTY NOMINEES WIN IN AUGUSTA ELECTION

AUGUSTA, Ga., Dec. 21.—(AP)—The democratic nominees for offices in the Richmond county municipal court today easily won the general election and will take office January 1.

Withdrawal of Mrs. Josephine W. McDonald from the race for judge of the court was believed to have increased the vote. Less than 4,000 ballots were cast, including about 150 by negroes.

For judge Joseph E. Bryson received 3,157 votes to 131 for H. H. Celler.

For clerk George Balk received 3,426 votes for clerk against 232 for C. J. Sweeney. J. B. Bowden was given 4,397 votes for sheriff of the court to 290 for Watkins.

ETHRIDGE DISCUSSES PARTY VIEW ON DEBTS

MACON, Ga., Dec. 21.—(AP)—Mark F. Ethridge, Macon editor, today told members of the Kiwanis Club that President-elect Roosevelt's non-cooperation "with the war debts problem" was "far from admirable."

He said the party's attitude toward the problem was one of "narrow partisanship."

Ethridge said "the debts will not be paid, because all history is against their payment; because Germany has already said to the world that she does not propose to pay any more than she agreed at Versailles."

He recommended that the United States "try to make the best bargain possible."

BANKERS TO OPPOSE GLASS SECURITY PLAN

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(AP)—The American Bankers' Association expressed opposition today to that part of the proposed Glass banking bill which would prohibit member banks of the federal reserve system from operating investment security departments.

The association expressed its approval of the principle of a federal liquidating corporation, as proposed, for closed banks, but said that member banks of the federal reserve system should not be "further burdened by being required to make subscriptions out of capital funds."

It recommended instead an amendment to provide for either the treasury or the treasury and the federal reserve bank jointly.

2 SCHOOLS SUSPENDED
BY FLU EPIDEMIC

ENID, Okla., Dec. 21.—(AP)—With approximately 1,000 students absent from classrooms because of influenza, the Enid school board today ordered classroom suspended for the Christmas holiday period two days earlier than originally planned.

LARAMIE, Wyo., Dec. 21.—(AP)—Schools in Laramie closed today, three days ahead of the Christmas schedule because of the number of teachers afflicted either with influenza or measles.

Almost Unbelievable

"Seems Marvellous the Way It Restores My Health"

"It's almost unbelievable the feeling of new life and strength that came over me when I started taking Sargon Soft Mass Pills. I had the worst stomach trouble and was terribly run-down, bilious and constipated. My whole system was poisoned and I suffered from sharp pains under my left shoulder. I became awfully nervous and could not sleep. Now I am as well and strong as I have ever been in my life. Sargon Soft Mass Pills are the most wonderful laxative I have ever used."

Audacious Mendicant Startles Macon Man

MACON, Ga., Dec. 21.—(AP)—Ben Lyles is trying to figure out whether he has been imposed upon by a beggar with poor technique or enlightened in the ways of getting along by a man with splendid audacity.

The shabby stranger came to Lyles' restaurant, complained of hunger and poverty and got a free meal.

"Where can I sleep?" he inquired when the feast was over.

Ben sent him to a public flophouse but in a little while he returned.

"Hey, you," he said. "Would you mind keeping my money for me? I'm afraid to sleep with it on me in that crowd."

WARE LEAGUE SEEKS
LOWER COUNTY TAXES

WAYCROSS, Ga., Dec. 21.—The need for drastic economy in the operation of county government, in order that taxes may be reduced in proportion to the income of the taxpayer, was stressed in an address before the Ware County Taxpayers' League by W. S. Booth, president.

A general investigating committee to go into the books of county officials, with the idea of making further recommendations as to reduced costs in the operation of the county was appointed on motion of W. King Ponsell, seconded by J. J. Murray.

The committee is composed of E. L. Davis as chairman; Branch Cullens, A. O. Johnson and L. B. Harrell. Mr. Davis also is chairman of the executive committee of the league.

In making the motion for the appointment of such a committee, Mr. Ponsell pointed out that the cutting of salaries of county officers will not go far toward reducing taxes, but that it will be necessary to reduce materially the operating expenses of the county. Recognition was taken of the fact that taxes already have been reduced in the county, but further reductions are being sought by the Taxpayers' League to meet the state of business conditions.

STANDARD RATING GIVEN NEGRO SCHOOLS

FORT VALLEY, Ga., Dec. 21.—(AP)—The full standard rating of the high school department has been given the Fort Valley Normal, Industrial and Commercial school by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Principal H. A. Hunt announced today.

By virtue of that rating, graduates of the school will be able to enter Class "A" colleges without condition.

Five other negro schools in Georgia have similar rating. They are Paine College, in Augusta; Georgia N. and A. school, in Albany; Douglas High school, in Thomasville, and Atlanta University High school, in Atlanta.

Booker T. Washington High, in Atlanta.

CORDELE WAREHOUSE IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

CORDELE, Ga., Dec. 21.—(AP)—The Slade warehouse here was destroyed by fire today with damage estimated by the owner, Jerry Slade, between $10,000 and $15,000.

The cause of the fire was not known. Slade said the loss was partially covered by insurance. Cooled cotton seed, tools, farm implements, and painted stored in the building were destroyed.

An adjoining building was slightly damaged but nobody was injured in the blaze.

TWO SUSPECTS HELD IN FARMER ROBBERY

Arrests Made at Dothan Following Armed Theft of $12,000.

DOTHAN, Ala., Dec. 21.—(AP)—Two men arrested here as suspects in the robbery of a Georgia farmer of $12,000 late today were surrendered to Sheriff O. F. Tarver, of Albany, Georgia.

The men, who gave their names as Jack Mitchell, 35, of Haleyville, Ala., and J. D. Mosley, 25, of Thomasville, Ga., were arrested this morning by Houston county authorities in an automobile which Sheriff Tarver identified as one belonging to H. E. McCollum, of Albany. The McCollum car, Georgia authorities said, was stolen a week ago.

When arrested, officers said, Mitchell was armed with a pistol, and Mosley with a knife. Mosley told officers Mitchell had picked him up at Haleyville yesterday, and that they drove to several towns before coming here last night.

FARMER BOUND OVER ON MURDER CHARGE

DAWSON, Ga., Dec. 21.—(AP)—At commitment trial held today in Preston, Terrell Jones, Webster county farmer, was bound over without bond, charged with the murder of Julian Sheffield, young white share cropper who lived on the Jones farm about 16 miles north of Dawson. Sheffield was fatally wounded on Tuesday night, December 6, by Jones.

According to reports, Sheffield was standing in front of his home and had turned to enter the house when he was shot by Jones. Details regarding the cause of the trouble are meager.

The trial consumed a greater portion of the day. Jones was represented by H. A. Wilkins, of Dawson, and M. A. Walker, of Preston, with Hollis Fort, solicitor-general of the southwestern circuit, of Americus, representing the state.

Following the trial Jones was returned to the Stewart county jail at Lumpkin, where he has been confined since his arrest on the night of the shooting. He will be given trial at the April term of Webster superior court if indicted by the grand jury.

RECEIVERSHIP ASKED FOR LINE IN GEORGIA

AUGUSTA, Ga., Dec. 21.—(AP)—A petition for receivership of the Elberton & Eastern railway has been filed in federal court here by its trustee, the Fidelity Trust Company.

Judge W. H. Barrett designated December 30 as the date for hearing the petition. The railroad is an interstate line connecting Washington, Ga., and Elberton.

ADLER TO MAKE GOOD STOLEN XMAS FUND

SAVANNAH, Ga., Dec. 21.—Employees of Leopold Adler's department store, part of whose Christmas savings had been taken by an employee of the store to whom the money had been entrusted during the year, now believe in Santa Claus. Mr. Adler announces that he will reimburse those who have lost through the disposition of the fund.

Plea for Children at Christmas Denied by Judge to Macon Man

MACON, Ga., Dec. 21.—(AP)—Judge Malcolm D. Jones, hearing a plea from Harold Shipp, a Macon resident, to allow the petitioner to have two of his four children visit him during the Christmas holidays, denied the request with the statement that the children "are being cared for in a home of one of the best families of Houston county."

Shipp told Judge Jones that he had prepared Christmas for the children and that "I'm the father of those children, the only father they've got, and I still love them better than I love anybody else in the world—next to my wife."

Shipp added that "I think people ought to try and get us all back together instead of trying to keep us apart. I'm in favor of a reconciliation."

Mr. and Mrs. Shipp were separated, records revealed, on account of religious differences. The children were ordered into custody of the court and placed in homes. Opposition to the plea was presented by an attorney for Mrs. Shipp.

HOOVER'S PLAN START FOR SAVANNAH FRIDAY

President Expects To Board
Sequoia About Noon
Saturday.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Preparations went forward today at the White House for President Hoover to set sail from Savannah, Ga., next Saturday, Christmas Eve, on a holiday cruise off the Georgia and Florida coasts.

Despite the approach of his scheduled departure from the capital, however, set for next Friday night, the president made clear to his aids that he might yet cancel the trip should developments in Capitol Hill or in his war debt plans require.

As plans now stand, the chief executive and Mrs. Hoover and a party of guests will board the government inspection boat Sequoia and Kilkeny at Savannah about noon Saturday.

For the next week or 10 days, the president plans to drift along, stopping where the fish are biting best or inspecting inland waterways.

There was a prospect, although definite plans were withheld, that a stop might be made on Christmas Eve at Sapelo Island, less than 100 miles from Savannah. The island is owned by Howard Coffin, a friend of Mr. Hoover, and has been visited by Mrs. Hoover previously. Christmas Eve might be spent on the high seas, however.

White House automobiles will be dispatched to Florida so that the presidential party may take land trips at intervening points.

Under present arrangements, the Hoovers would not return to the capital until around January 3 or 4.

DR. EVANS TO HEAD PHARMACISTS' BOARD

AUGUSTA, Ga., Dec. 21.—(AP)—Dr. W. T. Edmunds, retiring chairman of the Georgia state board of pharmacists, today announced that Dr. Charles H. Evans, Warrenton, Ga., would succeed him as head of the board, and that Dr. H. A. Deen, of Vidalia, had been elected vice chairman.

Nine candidates passed the pharmacists' examination held in Atlanta, with Nancy Lockwood, Brunswick, Ga., making highest mark.

Members of the board are Dr. Charles H. Evans, Dr. H. A. Deen, Dr. Jackson Hawk, Atlanta; Dr. Harold Herrin, Winder, and Dr. W. T. Edmunds.

Those who passed the examinations were Miss Nancy Lockwood, Brunswick; Howard H. McGee, Macon; Perlie T. Wheeler, Atlanta; C. L. Dixon, Atlanta; G. W. Bauman, Atlanta; Woodrow W. Moulton, Atlanta; John Franklin Jr., Macon; Howard Reid, Eastman, and John N. Settle, Macon.

TECHNOCRACY SCORNE
BY LONG ON VACATION

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 21.—(AP)—"No interviews and no photographs," Senator Huey P. Long, self-styled "Kingfish" of Louisiana politics, dismissed newspapermen with this curt conversation today upon his arrival from Washington to spend the Christmas holidays with his family. Long waved newspapermen aside.

He did comment briefly on technocracy by observing, "My system of the redistribution of wealth has got it beat." He said he would make a further study of technocracy, but added, "I don't believe they will ever devise a better solution of our problems than the redistribution of wealth."

Two Sea Gulls Killed Eighty Miles Inland

MILLEN, Ga., Dec. 21.—(AP)—A couple of sea gulls got mixed up in navigation, and death, in strange country far from the ocean, was the price they paid for the error.

Virgil Burke sighted them near this town, which is 80 miles from the sea, and thought they were wild ducks. So he blazed away with his shotgun and killed them.

AGREEMENT REACHED ON FILIPINO MEASURE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Acting in an alacrity that even surprised the principals, congressional conferees on Philippine independence legislation reached a tentative agreement at their initial sessions today on all points of major difference between the senate and house.

Details of the agreement were withheld until the two groups have had an opportunity to see the draft in print.

The chief points of difference in the two bills concern immigration and trade restrictions, the length of the transition period before full withdrawal of American sovereignty, and the export taxes the islands would levy to help liquidate their bonded indebtedness and accustom them to economic independence by virtue of gradually higher trade barriers.

U. S. TREASURY MOVES TO END GAS 'LEGGING'

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(AP)—To break up importers' evasion of the 2-1/2-cent gallon tax on imported gasoline, the treasury today ordered the same rate levied on foreign naphtha, which it is said has been imported in large quantities for conversion into motor fuel.

Outbreak of Flu Increases; Neglect of Colds Dangerous

While Conditions Here Are Not Yet Serious Extra Precautions Are Urged.

Colds Lower Resistance to Influenza and Should Be Properly Controlled.

TAKE NO CHANCES NOW

As yet, the outbreak of flu in this section has not reached alarming proportions. However, everyone is urged to follow every precaution against its spread—especially to be careful in avoiding and treating colds just now. Colds pull down body resistance and pave the way for flu and all its serious complications.

The safest course to follow is that outlined in Vicks VapoRub for Control of Colds. This proved Plan combines certain simple rules of health with proper medication, at the proper time. Its effect is to reduce the number and spread of colds—to lessen the severity and duration of those that do come. Briefly, it is this:

To Prevent Many Colds.
Live normally—don't worry. Get plenty of rest and sleep. Eliminate regularly. Drink lots of water. Eat light, wholesome food. Watch yourself and children carefully for any sign of "catching cold."

At the first feeling of stuffiness or nasal irritation, sniffle or sneeze—Nature's usual warning that a cold is coming—use Vicks Nose & Throat Drops, the new aid in preventing colds. This will check many colds at the nose and throat—where most colds start.

To End a Cold Sooner.
If a cold has developed or strikes without warning, vigorous measures are necessary. Rest as much as possible, preferably in bed. Take a mild laxative—if needed.

At bedtime, massage throat and chest well with Vicks VapoRub. It acts two ways at once to bring relief: By stimulation through the skin, by a poultice or plaster; and by inhalation of its medicated vapors direct to irritated air-passages. No "dosing" to upset delicate digestions and lower body strength when it is most needed to resist disease.

During the day, use the convenient Vicks Nose Drops every few hours as needed. They add to comfort—help shorten the cold.

If the throat is dry and "tickling," or irritated from coughing, there is pleasant relief in the new Vicks Medicated Cough Drops—ingredients of VapoRub in convenient candy form.

Plan Tested and Proved.
In clinical tests among thousands last winter, Vicks Colds-Control Plan reduced the number and duration of colds by half—cut the costs of colds more than half. How you can follow the

Senior Hadassah Postpones Victory Luncheon Till Jan. 3

The victory luncheon, the culminating event of the membership campaign being conducted by the Atlanta chapter of Senior Hadassah, was postponed till Tuesday, January 3, at the monthly board meeting held Wednesday morning at the Gas building. The luncheon will be held at 1 o'clock at the Jewish Progressive Club on Pryor street.

Plans for the luncheon were announced at the board meeting. The program chairman, Mrs. Herbert Taylor, has composed original invitation cards, which will be sent to all members, and she reports that the standing committee chairmen will preside as hostesses and compete for a prize to be awarded to the most beautiful and originally decorated table displaying the work of her chairmanship. Another feature will be a "Candle Dance" celebrating the holiday of Chanuka. Mrs. Sam Sugarman, refreshment chairman, announced that a decorated sweet table will be prepared for the occasion and the chapter would serve home-made cakes, cookies, candies and hot tea.

The luncheon will be in the form of a box luncheon, each member bringing her own sandwiches and enough for the guests she invites; the membership committee will invite as their guests the new members made during the campaign. Members are permitted to bring as many guests as they wish.

Mrs. Morris Frank held a parlor meeting at her home on Central avenue Wednesday afternoon in conjunction with the membership drive. The president, Mrs. Herbert Taylor, made an informal address on the ideals and aims of Hadassah, after which bridge was played. The invited guests were: Mesdames L. Rosenberg, H. Dworkin, Mark Firestone, P. Ginsberg, I. Friedland, Louis Cohen, Jack Isenberg, Harry Axelrod, Meyer Balser, Arthur Hillman, M. L. Kahn, L. J. Levitas and J. C. Luitrell.

On account of the bad weather the work of the membership campaign will be concentrated within the next two weeks. Members of the committee are Mesdames L. J. Levitas, chairman; E. H. Lippman, H. Mendle, Joseph Weiss, M. L. Kahn, Morris

Frank, E. M. Manning, S. O. Klotz, Jack Silver, H. Mattell, L. H. Goldstein and J. J. Hellman. The slogan of the drive is "Every Jewish Woman Has a Place in Hadassah." To the woman who is responsible for the largest membership gains in any chapter, the national board has voted to give a handsome imported object from Palestine and $1000, $500 or $250 will be given to the chapter who obtains the highest percentage of new members during the national membership campaign. The prizes are offered for new members only. A new member is defined as one who never before belonged to Hadassah, or one who was a former member but who has not paid the 1931 dues.

The board meeting also featured the election of the 1933 nominating committee. No new board members will be nominated this year, inasmuch as the one-two-three-year plan was inaugurated by the chapter in 1932, but nominations for new officers for the 1933-34 term will be made.

Coleman-Christian Wedding Rites Are Solemnized at Emory Chapel

Of interest to a wide circle of friends was the marriage of Miss Lucille Coleman, lovely daughter of Mrs. P. E. Coleman and the late Dr. P. E. Coleman, of Atlanta, to Schuyler M. Christian, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Christian, of Marietta, which took place yesterday at 5 o'clock in the chapel of the Theology building of Emory University. Dr. Robert C. Rhodes performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate families and a small gathering of friends of the young couple.

Stately palms and graceful ferns, interspersed with floor baskets of white chrysanthemums, and seven-branched candelabra holding lighted tapers were used for effective decorations on the altar.

The nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. Shanon who played Schubert's "Serenade" and Nerva's "Venezian Love Song." Doneen McCormack played a violin solo, "Traumerei." Mrs. W. E. Talley sang "All For You" and "O Perfect Love." The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played as the processional and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was used as the recessional.

The ushers were Dr. Darden J. Eare, of North Carolina, and Morris B. Strout, of Atlanta. The bridegroom chose as his best man Sanford Smith.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Glenn Anderson, of Decatur, who acted as matron of honor. She was attractively gowned in an afternoon model of wine-colored crepe trimmed with velvet. She wore a wine-colored crepe hat with other accessories to match, and carried an arm bouquet of Tansan roses. The beautiful bride entered with her brother, Dr. W. Edgar Coleman, by whom she was given in marriage.

Mr. Christian is a graduate of Marietta High school. He completed his bachelor of science in 1927, and master of science in 1928, from Emory. In 1929 he received his master of arts from Harvard, after which he taught part time on the faculty of Harvard, completing his doctor of philosophy in the spring of 1932. Mr. Christian is an associate professor on the faculty of Oglethorpe University.

After January 2 Mr. and Mrs. Christian will be at home at Oglethorpe. Prior to their marriage they were complimented at a number of social affairs. Tuesday evening Mrs. Coleman was hostess at a buffet supper following the wedding rehearsal. The guests included members of the bridal party.

whom she was given in marriage. She was handsomely gowned in dark blue transparent velvet, with a hat and other accessories to match. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a shower bouquet of Joanna Hill roses and valley lilies.

Mrs. P. E. Coleman, mother of the bride, wore black and white crepe, her shoulder bouquet being of roses and sweet peas.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian left for a motor trip through Florida. The bride wore for traveling a suit of dark green trimmed with black fur, with black accessories.

Mrs. Christian is a graduate of Girls' High school. She attended Agnes Scott and received her bachelor of science from Emory in 1930, and her master of arts from the same school in 1931. During her study at Emory, she assisted in research for three years and had Mr. Christian as her professor of chemistry. She will continue to teach at Agnes Scott, where she has been connected since 1930.

Striking Figure Features Dance Given by Girls' Cotillion Club

Featuring the brilliant dance given last evening by members of the Girls' Cotillion Club at the Piedmont Driving Club was the striking cotillion figure which was climaxed by a beautiful floral arch formed by garlands of pink roses held aloft by club members. Miss Virginia Torrance, president of the club, presented a stunning picture as she led the intricate figure with her escort, Gerald Carreker. Assisting in leading were Miss Frances Barnett, secretary of the club, and her escort, William Morrow. At the close of the march, as the couples took their places forming a line down the middle of the ballroom, garlands of shell-pink roses, carried by the members of the club, who participated in the figure, made a unique archway through which each couple passed before beginning to dance. Miss Mary Jennings and Miss Mary Wolff, vice president and treasurer of the club, were other officers who were unable to be present for the occasion.

The holiday motif was reflected in the attractive decorations used throughout the ballroom. A symmetrical Christmas tree was placed in the arched alcove at the west end of the ballroom, and was gaily bedecked with tiny varicolored electric lights and bright-hued ornaments. Smaller trees similarly adorned and glowing with strings of lights were effective decorations in the corners of the room and a small tree was placed at either side of the ballroom entrance. The slender white pillars encircling the room were entwined with ropes of similar and similar was festooned from the ceiling. The balcony was banked with palms and evergreen trees, and suspended from

Drag Hunt Planned For December 27 At Fort McPherson

FORT McPHERSON, Ga., Dec. 21.

Sport-loving members of the army set and guests from town will take part in the drag hunt which will be held at the post Tuesday, December 27, at 1 o'clock. Captain Sidney Negretto, M. F. H. of the Fort Benning Hunt Club, will be in charge of the drag, assisted by Lieutenant J. K. Baker. Captain Negretto arrived at the garrison early Tuesday morning with his four whippers-in and a huntsman, and will go over the course in the morning prior to the hunt in the afternoon.

The hunt will be trailed by a gallery who will view the run of the hounds from vantage points overlooking the trail through the woods. Interested spectators will assemble at the parade ground to witness the riding contingent as they leave for the two-hour hunt and then will go by motor to special points to watch the hounds and hunters.

Following the hunt three will be in attendance at the Fort McPherson Officers' Club, when the guests will include the members of the army set, their guests from Atlanta and out-of-town friends.

Christmas Program.

A Christmas program will be presented by the Fort McPherson Officers' Club, when the guests will include the members of the army set, their guests from Atlanta and out-of-town friends.

Expression Program.

The Atlanta School of Oratory and Expression, 402 Peachtree Memorial church, will present pupils from the children and adult departments in a Christmas program today at 11 o'clock, to which the public is invited. Mrs. V. C. Murrah will read "The Purchase at the Book Store" and "Gifts Exchanged"; Mildred Pierson will give a dialect Christmas reading; John Shultz will give a temporary lecture on Christmas; Miss Ida Thurman will interpret "Twas the Night Before Christmas"; Sam Maghee will declaim "Christmas"; Beverly Maghee will read "Christmas Cheer"; Tommy Quinn will give a series of Christmas readings; Mrs. H. K. Armstrong will give a reading interpreting the spirit of Christmas.

For Miss Calhoun.

Miss Rosemary Townley was hostess at luncheon yesterday at her home on Palisades road, in honor of Miss Marion Calhoun, one of the season's most popular debutantes. The beautifully appointed table held as its central decoration a silver bowl of assorted fruit. The guests included Miss Calhoun, Misses May Latimer, Frances Boykin, Jean Lucas, Pettie Porter, Mary Ann Howell, Mary Meador Goldsmith, Elvira Smith and Constance Adams.

AROUND LOCAL CONTRACT TABLES by Whitner Cary

The master's tournament is over. The last alibi has been advanced. The 96 hands have been hashed and rehashed. The 101 aces have been obituated. And last, but by no means least, one D. Martin, who was digging down in the deepest closet of the Martin household to find last year's palm beach suits.

For this same D. T. Martin, as you probably know, is the player who will receive the free trip to St. Petersburg the second week in January and the opportunity to play for one week in the individual contract championship ever held in this country. Mr. Martin gained this right Monday evening at the Atlanta Bridge Club when he topped off three very steady sessions of play with a fourth to give him a total of 264 points. His score was not the highest made, however, as Mrs. Gladys Peabody, who had led the field from the start of hostilities Friday evening but was forced out of competition Monday by play throughout substitutes, had well as automatically disqualified her figure of 273-1-2. That statement sounds somewhat involved as one would naturally wonder how Gladys could finish with a fewer which flitted around the 102 mark.

In a tournament of this nature requiring a certain number of players to play throughout substitutes, it is well to be employed for any absence. On the final evening Mrs. Harry Cannon was substituted for Gladys and the score carried forward. That Mrs. Cannon did not play can be seen from the score turned in. It was a tough break for Gladys that she was taken ill for she had won the tournament more than Edwin Nix. He was put on the spot in the manner of a decision but as he had announced at the start that if illness or other causes prevented the attendance of a player at any session that player was automatically disqualified.

With the disqualification of Gladys the tournament was a very open affair for about a half dozen on the final stretch drive Monday evening. At the start of those last 20 boards it appeared that Mrs. Carl Vreeman, Henry Tompkins, Mrs. J. T. Daniel and D. T. Martin had the best chances with Miss Peggy Porter, Joe David and Mrs. B. C. Dickinson having a fighting hope.

But those last 20 boards proved a veritable Waterloo for Tompkins and Mrs. Vreeman. Nothing seemed to go for them and at the conclusion of the final board both knew that Florida was a dream.

Mrs. J. T. Daniel made a steady bid with the last session but her effort fell just a trifle short and her 257 points gained her a tie with Mrs. B. C. Dickinson for second place. This is a very fine opportunity place to mention the fact that Mrs. Dickinson deserves unstinted praise for the manner in which she finished.

During the qualifying round and the first three sessions of the main tournament, Mrs. Dickinson displayed a brand of very steady, sound bridge. Then on the final evening, with but a bare fighting chance, she gave an exhibition of stretch running that would be worthy of some of the great race horses of our generation. It has been said that she was a "stretch runner" and she proved it.

Mrs. J. G. Russell and A. M. Dunn ran away with Mrs. Emma McDaniel's Tuesday evening tournament, with a score of 71-1-2 points. Miss Peggy Porter and Mrs. William Coleman, with 64 points, were second and Miss Lily Mae Wilkes and Harry Dobbs, with 60 points, were third. All the friends of Mrs. McDaniel are looking forward to Saturday afternoon when she is going to have open house to all her bridge friends.

List of Subscribers Announced For Festivities at Standard Club

The Standard Club has planned a gay and interesting program of yuletide festivities which will be inaugurated with an informal dance to be held at 9:30 o'clock in the evening on Christmas Eve. A tea dance at 5 o'clock, and a brilliant "bal masque," beginning at midnight and concluding with breakfast served at 4:30 o'clock, are scheduled for Christmas Day. The festivities will be climaxed by a formal dinner-dance at 8:30 o'clock Monday evening, December 26.

The members of Atlanta ballyhoo will sponsor the series of events and in charge of arrangements are Alex Dittler, chairman; Vol Blacklock, vice chairman, and Harry C. Zaban, secretary and treasurer. The entertainment committee includes Joe Brown, chairman; Jacob Haas, vice chairman; Julian Joselev, Ben Wiseberg, Lewis J. Frohman and Ed Jankower. Henry Williamson is in charge of invitations and Lewis C. Long will act as bounce chairman.

The members of the reception committee are Donald Oberdorfer, chairman; Joe S. Asher, J. W. Frost, J. H. Harold, E. Marcus, Al Myers Jr., H. J. Rosenberg Jr., W. B. Schwartz, Simon Solig Jr., Harry Semmons, Edgar J. Strauss and Lewis J. Troutman Jr.

HEAVY UNDERTONE IS NOTED ON CURB

By CLAUDE A. JAGGER.
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(P)—Curb stocks developed a somewhat heavy undertone today, in quieter trading.
Losses were largely limited to small fractions, save in some of the comparatively inactive issues, where some rather wide declines suggested selling to establish losses for tax purposes. The total turnover of 160, 000 shares was about 40,000 under yesterday's.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(P)—Reports received by some of the larger Wall Street banks from Europe indicate that about $70,000,000 of gold will arrive in this country before the year ends, it was said today.

Great Britain, France and India, bankers said, were the principal shippers. About $46,000,000 gold is expected from England, partly representing the shifting of the metal in connection with Britain's December 15 war

ELECTRIC PRODUCTION SHOWS GAIN IN WEEK

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(P)—Electric power production picked up sharply in the past week, the weekly sult, bankers stated, would be to restore fully as much, and probably more gold to this country, than was taken

While a gain in the week ending December 17 is the usual seasonal experience, the upturn this year was substantially larger than in the years 1931, 1930, or even 1929. To a substantial degree, it presumably reflected dark stormy weather over much of the country.

Information

CLOSING HOURS

Want Ads are accepted up to 9 p. m. for publication the next day. The closing hour for the Sunday edition is 5:30 p. m. Saturday.

CLASSIFIED RATES

Daily and Sunday rates per line for consecutive insertions:
One time 20 cents
Three times 50 cents
Seven times 1.00
Minimum, 2 lines (12 words).

In estimating the space of an ad figure six average words to a line. Ads ordered for three or more days and stopped before expiration will only be charged for the number of times the ad appeared and adjustments made at the rate ordered.

Errors in advertisements should be reported immediately. The Constitution reserves the right to delete or correct any advertisement.

All want ads are restricted to their proper classification and the Constitution reserves the right to delete or correct any advertisement.

Ads ordered by telephone are accepted from persons listed in the telephone book or city directory. A refund charge will be returned for this service. The advertiser is expected to remit promptly.
